Academic Integrity

We in the School of Management and Labor Relations take academic integrity very seriously. Violations include: cheating, fabrication, plagiarism, denying others access to information or material, and facilitating violations of academic integrity. Please consult the university's Academic Integrity Policy summarizes the student's obligations below.

Special Needs Accommodations

Rutgers University welcomes students with disabilities into all of the University's educational programs. In order to receive consideration for reasonable accommodations, a student with a disability must contact the appropriate disability services office at the campus where you are officially enrolled, participate in an intake interview, and provide documentation:

<https://ods.rutgers.edu/students/documentation-guidelines>.

If the documentation supports your request for reasonable accommodations, your campus's disability services office will provide you with a Letter of Accommodations. Please share this letter with your instructors and discuss the accommodations with them as early in your courses as possible. To begin this process, please complete the Registration form (<https://webapps.rutgers.edu/student-ods/forms/registration>).

Cost Benefit Analysis/Return on Investment Project

You will work in teams to do the following:

- I. Select an HR project or program, e.g. launching a Human Resource Information Systems division, developing a new training program, outsourcing an HR function.
- II. Prepare a detailed list of all the direct and indirect costs and benefits.
- III. Conduct an in-depth cost-benefit analysis using a Net Present Value model.
- IV. Calculate Internal Rate of Return of the proposed project or program.
- V. Compare your forecasted results to similar investments made by competitors.
- VI. Write a report describing your analysis and rationale for your decision.

Your team will prepare this report for the Chief Human Resources Officer. This report must state your recommendation and summarize all analyses. Also, your team will prepare and deliver a PowerPoint presentation to the HR executive committee (comprised of instructor and class participants) of your recommendation and analyses. Grades will be based on the quality of the:

- I. Analysis
- II. Written report
- III. Presentation

Modules 1 and 2 begin on Tuesday, May 30. Each week, we will cover two modules. During Week 1, we will begin the following course components that we will use for each of the two modules:

Virtual Office Hours – Mondays and Wednesdays from 6:15 pm to 7:15 pm US Eastern Daylight Time – You will have the opportunity to discuss the weekly module concepts, calculations and problems. These sessions are not required but are highly recommended to review the course material and ask questions. You will use the Zoom conference feature in Canvas to access these conferences, which will also be recorded and posted on our course site.

Pre-recorded Class Lectures – Weekly pre-recorded video lectures posted each week for you to view and help you learn the course material in the two modules per week.

Assignments (Graded) - Weekly assignment on module material that needs to be submitted as directed in text box or dropbox.

Discussions (Graded) - Asynchronous discussion board among the students and me based on four questions on the weekly material. Students post responses and interact with others through a virtual discussion board.

Quizzes (Graded) – Weekly check on terms, concepts and calculations from the weekly modules.

Team Project (Graded) - You will work in your teams virtually. To help you connect, you can also use Big Blue Button to meet, share documents and present. You should collaborate with your project team members using the Canvas project teams set up for you under the Group icon. (Teams will be set up in third week of class.)
