I. COURSE DESCRIPTION

This course will examine U.S. immigration with a focus on globalization, Latino immigrants, and the proliferation of low wage work.

The topics we will explore include:

- Immigration theories and why people come.
- The history of migration and migration policy in the U.S.
- Current immigration laws in the U.S.
- The impact of globalization.
- How immigrants manage and survive in the U.S.
- The employment and labor rights of immigrant workers.
- Labor markets, subcontracting and low wage immigrant-dominated industries.
- Efforts to organize through unions and worker centers to improve wages and working conditions.
- Current policy initiatives/debates and fixing a broken system.

II. LEARNING OBJECTIVES

By the end of the course we will:

- Know and understand fundamental social science, historical, and legal perspectives, theories, and concepts relating to immigration;
- Know the fundamental laws/institutions governing immigration;
- Understand how the global economy impacts immigration;
- Understand how our diverse backgrounds and cultures shape our experiences and perspectives on immigration; and
- Improve our critical thinking, problem solving and communication skills.

III. EXPECTATIONS

Preparation
We will be covering a lot of ground in a very short time so please read and bring the assigned material to each class and take good notes.
Participation
Class sessions will include short lectures, small group discussions and group exercises. The expectation is that everyone will actively participate in the class.

When participating in discussions use your experience and the information you get from the readings. When you take a position try to back it up with facts, data and examples. And above all, be respectful and listen when others are speaking. You do not have to agree but you must give full attention and consideration to other points of view.

Texting, or talking on cell phones and emailing are all prohibited during class.

Attendance
Thirty percent (30%) of your grade will be based on attendance and participation so it is vitally important to attend every class. Failure to sign the sign-in sheet will result in a loss of attendance points. You can only be excused for an illness, death in the family or other real emergencies.

Students who are late to class will lose attendance points so please be punctual. Also, if you leave early without permission you will be marked absent for the entire class.

Communication
I will communicate any official course correspondence via email, so please check your Rutgers email account regularly. Feel free to contact me via email with questions or concerns about the course. I will do my best to get back to you within 24 hours.

When emailing always include “Immigration and Worker Rights 37:575:320:81” in the subject line of your email.

IV. EVALUATION
Final grades will be based on the following:

1. Class preparation, attendance and participation (30%)
2. Mid-Term (35%)
3. Final Exam (35%)

Mid-Term and Final Exams
The mid term and final exams will be take-home test that cover all course readings, lectures, discussion questions, films, exercises, etc. There may be one cumulative question to answer for the final.

V. COURSE READINGS
All other materials are available on the course Sakai website. Students can access the course Sakai site by following these directions:
