Course Description: This course will explore and analyze the environment, participants, process, outcomes and impacts of collective bargaining. Students are expected to complete the assigned reading prior to class meetings and be prepared to discuss the material. To facilitate the learning experience, the class will combine small group and class discussions, lectures and exercises. Additionally, students will participate in a mock contract negotiation.

Readings: The readings consist of one textbook and excerpts from several other textbooks including: “Labor Relations and Collective Bargaining, Private and Public Sectors”, 10th Ed., Michael R. Carrell and Christina Heavrin. This book will be referred to as “Carrell”. The readings from the Carrell book will NOT be available on Sakai. All other readings will be available on Sakai, including, “LABOR RELATIONS, Striking a Balance.” John W. Budd (October 24, 2012); “An Introduction to Collective Bargaining and Labor Relations,” 4th Ed., Harry Katz, Thomas Kochan and Alexander Colvin. Readings from this book will be referred to as K&K; “Collective Bargaining: How it Works and Why, 3rd Ed.,” Thomas Colosi and Arthur Berkely. Readings from this book will be referred to as “Colosi and Berkely.” There will be other readings assigned as we move through the semester. The reading MUST be done prior to class.

Warning: Cheating will not be tolerated. Please review Rutgers Academic Integrity policy. The success of this class depends on your attendance and participation. If there is a problem occurring in your life which prevents you from coming to class or keeping up with assignments, you should tell me. Every effort will be made to accommodate any problems needing accommodation. However, do not wait until after performing poorly on the mid-term or failing the course to bring such matters to my attention.
Grading: Grades will be computed as follows:
- 5% Bargaining Structure Assignment
- 35% Mid-Term Exam
- 40% Mock Bargaining Exercise
- 10% Bargaining Journal
- 10% Attendance and Participation
