This course provides an overview of American labor law, including the law relating to union organizing, collective bargaining, contract enforcement, strikes, and relations between unions and their members.

Texts:
1. Peter DeChiara, Text for American Labor Law Course (available on Sakai)

Course Requirements:

Class attendance is required.

Students are required to do the reading for each class in advance of class and be prepared to discuss it during class. Class discussion will be based on a close reading of legal materials, so it is necessary for students to bring the assigned reading material to class.

There will be an in-class mid-term exam and an in-class second (final) exam.

Grades will be based on performance on the two exams and on class participation/attendance.
