

Brief Syllabus
37:575:365 Disability Work and Society

Course Description:

Explores the relationship of disability to work, politics, law, popular culture, and the built environment; lessons for all disadvantaged groups seeking social change.

Important information:

This course is suitable for non-majors as well as majors or minors. There are no pre-requisites.

Learning Objectives. The student is able to:

Labor Studies and Employment Relations Department:

- Analyze the degree to which forms of human difference shape a person's experience of work. (Goal 6)
- Analyze issues of social justice related to work across local and global contexts (Goal 8).

School of Management and Labor Relations:

- Evaluate the context of workplace issues, public policies, and management decisions (Goal V).

Assessment of student success in meeting learning objectives:

Typically a rubric is applied to particular short answer items on the final exam and/or on written assignments.

In addition, grades are also based on student performance in exercises, discussions, and other assignments.