Course Policies

Class Sessions

1. The course week begins on MONDAYS.

See course and assignment calendar within course shell for semester-specific dates.

2. A weekly message will be sent to each student as well as uploaded into the announcements section of the course shell. Comments from your instructor and additional information about content or assignment procedures are available within the weekly message.
3. Each course week is 7 days in length (Monday - Sunday). Students may enter the course and engage in coursework at any time 24 hours a day, 7 days a week.

Grading

A final grade is based on a 330 point system. Each assignment is worth a specific number of points. Total points accumulated determines final course grade.

Exams on Required Material

There are two exams on required material (reading/audio/video). Exam questions involve true/false, and/or matching, and/or multiple choice answers.

Once a student begins an exam he/she must complete the assessment in the allotted time. Once the allotted time period passes, the student is locked out of the exam.

Writing Assignment

Students choose a concept or a topic associated with material being addressed weeks 2 – 5. Students reflect on material, locate material on the web to continue to support, expand upon, or provide an example of the concept/topic. Instructions for developing the writing assignment are available in the course.

Length, Frequency, Due Dates, Late Assignments:

Maximum approximately one page (500 words) overview of topic. Writing must be available for instructor and learning community review no later than 11:59 pm the last day of week 4. Check course calendar for exact dates.

A deduction of 10% (one letter grade) will be applied if date and time is missed within 24 hours; a 50% penalty will be applied for 25 to 48 hours late. No assignments will be accepted after a 48 hour period.

Grading:

The writing assignment is graded week 5. Check calendar for exact date points/grade are available in a student's gradebook.

Students are graded on:

Clarity in communicating reflection and critical thinking on topic/material selected to review; relevancy and accuracy of content; and acknowledgement of original concept sources (must be at least 2 sources used as a base from which writing assignment is based).

Knowledge of subject matter must be evident, not simply a student's opinion on a topic. Point deductions are associated when best practices criteria are not met.

Peer Comments on Writing Assignment

Students reflect on the content of each other's writing assignment and course material associated with content. Students provide insights and material to defend their position on the topic or expand on the entry.

Frequency, Due Date and Late Comments: Students are required to make a minimum of 3 comments on 3 separate writing assignments submitted by learning community members. Comments can be made anytime weeks 5 – 6. See course calendar for last date and time for peer comments. Comments made after the week 6 date and time deadline will not be counted. No exceptions.

Grading:

Peer comments on writing assignments will be graded end of week 6. Check calendar for exact date points/grade are available in a student's gradebook.

Students are graded on:

Meeting minimum number of comments. Quality of comment: reflection on comment and course material is evident.

Criteria for context and mechanics – writing assignments and peer comments

Students are required to pay attention to grammar, spelling, and sentence structure and as well as the manner in which ideas/thoughts are expressed and presented. Content must be appropriate for an academic assignment.

Checking Email

Instructor's Email Checking Policy Unless students receive advance notification, your instructor will check her email Monday - Friday. If a student sends a comment or question, the student will receive a response within 48 hours. This policy excludes Saturday/Sunday.

Students Email Checking Policy It is the responsibility of the student to check for incoming course related messages AT LEAST twice a week. Remember: Each student will receive a weekly message from his/her instructor on Mondays.
