GLOBALIZATION, CORPORATE RESTRUCTURING, AND EMPLOYMENT
38:578:530:01

Spring 2012 Draft

Class Time: Monday 12-3  Tillet 204
Office Hours: Monday and Wednesday by Appointment LEC Room 148
Administrative Assistant: LauraAnn Walkoviak 732-932-9503

Requirements
This course will have a seminar format, including a combination of lectures, case studies, and discussion. All students are expected to attend each class prepared to discuss the readings. Final grades will be based 1/3 on class participation, 1/3 on a mid-term exam, and 1/3 on a final exam.

Class Participation
This class will be conducted seminar style and class participation is essential. You must read and think about the material before the seminar and be prepared to participate actively in small group and entire class discussions.

Your participation grade will also be based on:

Discussion Leadership - Each student is required to sign up for one week of the semester. All students choosing a particular week will facilitate a small group discussion that will include preparing a list of discussion questions and summarizing the main issues and arguments for that week including integration with readings and discussion from previous classes.

Weekly Summaries - As part of class participation students are required to write short 1 page papers analyzing the argument of each week’s reading and relating it to our ongoing conversation about globalization, corporate restructuring and the changing nature of employment. Summarize the main ideas and arguments from the readings each week and how they relate to previous readings/arguments and the course theme. You may include multiple readings in your summaries (you don’t need 1 page for each reading) but be clear (reference) the reading and author you are discussing in each section of your paper. Papers are due at the beginning of class. If a student is unable to attend class the paper must still be submitted.

Norms

- Read and think about all of the assigned readings before each class.
- Please participate actively, thoughtfully, and respectfully – listen and engage appropriately.
- Please be ready to begin class on time. Some lateness is inevitable but it is disruptive so please keep it to a minimum.
- Please minimize absences – this is a seminar that depends on participation. If you must miss class please call or email me in advance.
- Please turn all cell phones off prior to the start of class.
- You may use personal computers, but only for class work – not for checking email or web surfing.
- Please turn in the exams when they are due.

Please Review the University's Policy on Academic Integrity:
