Course Requirements

The course involves:

Reading, Audio/Video Assignments

Students read text chapter excerpts, journal articles and material on the Internet. Students are also required to watch video and listen to audio presentations. All required reading/audio/video is already uploaded into the course or an Internet link is provided.

Key texts from which course content is presented:

Bell, M. P. (2007). Diversity in Organizations, Thompson South-Western, Mason, OH.

Exams on Required Material

There are two exams on required material (reading/audio/video). Exam questions involve true/false, matching, and multiple choice answers.

Exam weeks: 2 and 6.

Exam #1: Is scheduled to be taken week 2. Students will complete the exam anytime during a 4 day open period. Check your calendar on the days the exam is open during week 6. The exam cannot be taken once it has closed. Exam #1 Worth: 45 points

Exam #2: Is scheduled for week 6, the last week of the course. Exam #2 will be available to complete anytime during a 3 day period. Check your calendar on the days the exam is open during week 6. The exam cannot be taken once it has closed. Exam #2 Worth: 70 points

For either exam: Once a student begins an exam he/she must complete the assessment in 60 minutes. Once the 60 minute period passes, the student is locked out of the exam.

Personal Profile

Students develop a profile introducing themselves to their learning community by reflecting on course topics. Students follow directions provided in the course and upload their profile into their learning community's blog area.

Assignment worth: 40 points.

Length, Frequency, Due Date, Late Assignment:

Maximum 500 word profile. A student’s profile must be available no later than 11:59 pm the last day of week 2. Check course calendar for the exact date. A deduction of 10% (one letter grade) will be applied if date and time is missed within 24 hours; a 50% penalty will be applied for 25 to 48 hours late. No assignments will be accepted after a 48 hour period.

Grading:

The writing assignment is graded week 3. Check calendar for exact date points are available in a student’s gradebook.

Students must identify and discuss at least two course topics as they relate to their lives to earn the full 40 points. Absence of reflection on at least 2 course related topics reduces the amount of points a student can earn on this introductory assignment to 20 points.

Writing Assignment

Students choose a concept or a subtopic associated with material being addressed weeks 2 – 5. Students reflect on material, locate material through the Rutgers Library or on the Internet to explain, support, expand upon, and/or provide an example of the concept/subtopic. Instructions for developing the writing
Assignment are available in the course.
Assignment worth: 130 points

Length, Frequency, Due Date, Late Assignment:
Maximum 500 word overview of topic; maximum 150 word opinion statement; at least 2 citations of high quality material used to develop the overview. Writing must be available for instructor and learning community review no later than 11:59 pm the last day of week 4. Check course calendar for the exact date.

A deduction of 10% (one letter grade) will be applied if date and time is missed within 24 hours; a 50% penalty will be applied for 25 to 48 hours late. No assignments will be accepted after a 48 hour period.

Grading:
The writing assignment is graded week 5. Check calendar for exact date points/grade are available in a student’s gradebook.

Students are graded on:
Clarity in communicating reflection and critical thinking on topic/material selected to review; relevancy and accuracy of content; and acknowledgement of original concept sources (must be at least 2 sources used as a base from which writing assignment is based).

Knowledge of subject matter must be evident, not simply a student’s opinion on a topic. Point deductions are associated when best practices criteria are not met.

Peer Comments on Writing Assignment
Students reflect on the content of each other’s writing assignment and course material associated with content. Students provide insights and material to defend their position on the topic or expand on the entry. Worth: 45 points

Frequency, Due Date and Late Comments: Students are required to make a minimum of 3 comments on 3 separate writing assignments submitted by learning community members. Comments can be made anytime weeks 5 – 6. See course calendar for last date and time for peer comments. Comments made after the week 6 date and time deadline will not be counted. No exceptions.

Grading:
Peer comments on writing assignments will be graded end of week 6. Check calendar for exact date points/grade are available in a student’s gradebook.

Students are graded on:
Meeting minimum number of comments. Quality of comment: reflection on writing assignment overview contents and course material is evident.

Criteria for context and mechanics – writing assignments and peer comments
Students are required to pay attention to grammar, spelling, and sentence structure and as well as the manner in which ideas/thoughts are expressed and presented. Content must be appropriate for an academic assignment. Flaming a peer will result in removal of a comment. No points will be earned.

Grading
A final grade is based on a 330 point system. Each assignment is worth a specific number of points. Total points accumulated determines final course grade.

Spring, 2012
Course Policies

Class Sessions
1. The course week begins on MONDAYS.
   For spring 2012 semester:
   Students are expected to enter the course on Monday, January 30.
   The last day students will be expected to log into the course prior to final grades being posted is March 9.
2. A weekly message will be sent to each student as well as uploaded into the course weekly messages file in document sharing by 10 am MONDAYS. Comments from your instructor and additional Information about content or assignment procedure is available within the weekly message.
3. Each course week is 7 days in length (Monday – Sunday). Students may enter the course and engage in coursework at any time 24 hours a day, 7 days a week.

Extra Credit

There is one way to earn extra credit. The maximum amount of extra credit a student can earn in this course is 10 points.

Students can earn extra credit when a learning community member recommends ("Likes") his/her writing assignment contents. A student cannot "Like" his/her own writing assignment. A total of 10 points can be earned for learning community members recommending a writing assignment. Extra credit will be applied upon the deadline for all comments to be made (week 6.)

Checking Email

Instructor's Email Checking Policy   Unless students receive advance notification, your instructor will check her email by 9:00 am Eastern Time, Monday - Friday. If a student sends a comment or question, the student will receive a response within 24 hours. This policy excludes Saturday/Sunday and spring break.

Students Email Checking Policy   It is the responsibility of the student to check for incoming course related messages at least twice a week. Remember: Each student will receive a weekly message from his/her instructor on MONDAY mornings.
