Please copy all professors when you email about the course. That way one of us can be sure to get back to you.

Contact information for Professor Voos:
Cell phone: 732-261-5958. She is available to speak by phone most mornings but its best to text to be sure (and include your name at the end of the text). Professor Voos prefers to answer substantive questions about subject matter in the course by phone, rather than email.

Email is great for many things: pbvoos@SMLR.rutgers.edu. You can also email her in the internal Canvas email system

Contact information for Professor Liu:
Email is her preferred method of contact: Xiangmin.Liu@rutgers.edu. Her cell phone is 848-252-9265.

Schedule: The weeks in the course begin on Monday and end on Sunday evening at 11:59 p.m. You often will have things due on either Thursday evening or Sunday evening, just like any course that meets twice a week. The schedule and the assignments are subject to change. This is an online course that is largely asynchronous.

Text: Stephen Sweet and Peter Meiksins. Changing Contours of Work: Jobs and Opportunities in the New Economy. 3rd Edition. Sage, 2017. (Please note: the second and third editions are similar, although the latter is more up to date. The first is very different – do not use it).

Grades:
For purposes of grading, there are multiple components of the course:

• Introductory exercises (Personal information/pre-test participation) (4%)
• 6 Threaded Discussions (Forums) (42%)
• 3 Exams or “Quizzes “at 15% each (45%) Or 12% each & add short paper/assignment?
• Short take-home final (9%)

The professors reserve the right to determine the division between B and B+ etc., although in many years B+ starts at an overall average of 88. That cutoff is subject to change each semester.

For Learning Objectives and Policy on Disability, see the Appendix
Schedule: The course is asynchronous but students must read and participate each week:

Disability
Rutgers University welcomes students with disabilities into all of the University's educational programs. In order to receive consideration for reasonable accommodations, a student with a disability must contact the appropriate disability services office at the campus where you are officially enrolled, participate in an intake interview, and provide documentation: https://ods.rutgers.edu/students/documentation-guidelines. If the documentation supports your request for reasonable accommodations, your campus’s disability services office will provide you with a Letter of Accommodations. Please share this letter with your instructors and discuss the accommodations with them as early in your courses as possible. To begin this process, please complete the Registration form on the ODS web site at: https://ods.rutgers.edu/students/registration-form.
