WHAT IS BARGAINING FOR THE COMMON GOOD?

The Bargaining for the Common Good network grew out of successful campaigns driven by unions, community groups, and racial justice organizations. Today, groups across the country are partnering around a long-term vision for the structural changes they want to see in their communities and using union bargaining as a critical moment in a broader fight for the common good. The BCG network is convened by the Action Center on Race and the Economy, the Center for Innovation in Worker Organization at Rutgers University, and the Kalmanovitz Initiative for Labor and the Working Poor at Georgetown University.

KEY PRINCIPLES OF COMMON GOOD CAMPAIGNS

- Expand the scope of bargaining beyond wages and benefits
- Go on offense in your campaign by identifying, exposing and challenging the real bad actors
- Engage community allies as partners in issue development and the bargaining campaign
- Center racial justice in your demands
- Strengthen internal organizing, membership and member engagement
- Leverage capital in our campaigns
- The campaign doesn't end once the union settles its contract
