

Small Business Labor Law Pilot Program

Are You A Community Bookkeeper? Join Our Work.

What Is This Pilot Program?

The Small Business Labor Law Pilot Program collaborates with community bookkeepers to assist small businesses, particularly those owned by disadvantaged groups, in strengthening their business and labor law practices. We offer training for bookkeepers to deepen their understanding of labor laws, conduct regular roundtable discussions, and engage bookkeepers to deliver limited subsidized services to their clients.

Questions? Contact Andy Vue at avue@ndc-mn.org or 651.379.8109

Who Are We Looking For?

We seek bookkeepers who are enthusiastic about supporting small businesses that uplift and empower entire communities through service-oriented approaches and financial strength.

Benefits of the Program

- Free training on labor laws and implementation.
- Get access to a network of bookkeepers.
- Increase the financial capabilities of small businesses.
- Be supported throughout the program.