

DEI Teaching Resources for Faculty

Goal: To provide faculty with a few resources they can easily access and that are helpful to thinking about inclusiveness in their teaching.

Source Title and Source Link	Notes
ACUE 10 Inclusive Teaching Practices (PDF or website)	Toolkit from Association of College and University Educators. Sign up is free on the site for more resources.
MyPronouns.org (Website)	Resources on Personal Pronouns: What it is, why it matters, how-to guidelines
Instructional Accessibility (Website)	Rutgers Accessibility Knowledge Base. The site contains various accessibility standard guidelines, and tutorials on how to make your documents accessible.
Universal Design for Learning (UDL) (PDF or Website)	An (PDF) infographic description of universal design principles from the UDL website.
7 Things you should know about the Digital Divide (PDF or Website)	From EDUCAUSE.org. Rutgers is a member institution of EDUCAUSE. Sign up is free and recommended, although most of the resources do not require signing up.
7 Things You Should Know About Accessibility (PDF or Website)	From EDUCAUSE.org. Rutgers is a member institution of EDUCAUSE. Sign up is free and recommended for more resources, although most of the resources do not require signing up.
Faculty Toolkit on Digital Inclusion (Website)	From NYU. The website explains how to use the toolkit, and links to various resources in the toolkit. Sign up not required.
Canvas Commons resources/courses (Website)	Various courses and resources related to DEI under Canvas Commons contributed by various content creators. Shared under the Creative Commons copyright licenses.
Diversity and Inclusion in Teaching and Learning (Website)	Resources from Rutgers Center for Teaching Advancement & Assessment Research (CTAAR).

June 2021

List compiled by Marta Pulley