The SMLR Gonfalon

by John Burton Jr., Professor Emeritus
Rutgers School of Management and Labor Relations

The gonfalon for the School of Management and Labor Relations was designed to symbolize the mission of the school: to improve the relationship between management and labor in order to serve the public. The three colors used throughout the gonfalon represent the three parties interested in constructive employment relations: labor (red), management (blue), and the public (gold).

The inner set of triangles represents the common and sometimes ineffective interaction between labor and management and the consequences for the public. The shades of red, blue, and gold in the inner triangles are muted and dark. The role of the School of Management and Labor Relations is to improve the relationship. The School's contributions to the better relationship between management and labor and ultimately to the benefit of the public is symbolized by the multi-pointed explosion of gold that lies behind the triangles. The result of the school's contributions to the improved relationship between the participants in employment relations and to the public is shown in the outer set of triangles. The shades of blue, red, and gold in the outer triangles are bright and vivid.

The gonfalon was created in 1994 when the Institute of Management and Labor Relations was transformed into the School of Management and Labor Relations. Then Dean John Burton, Associate Dean Steven Director, and Assistant Dean Betty Lou Heffernan were responsible for the concept and general design of the gonfalon. Kevin Rau helped translate the concept into the final design.

University Speaker

Francine Conway, Chancellor, Rutgers University–New Brunswick

Dr. Francine Conway is the Chancellor of Rutgers University–New Brunswick, where she leads a vibrant community of more than 40,000 students and 10,000 faculty and staff. A scholar, clinician, and higher education leader, she is guided by a clear belief: that access and excellence grow stronger together.

Since becoming chancellor in 2023, and previously serving as Chancellor-Provost, Dr. Conway has advanced a university-wide vision focused on student success, innovative research, and meaningful community impact. Under her leadership, Rutgers has expanded opportunity through initiatives like the Scarlet Guarantee and strengthened its role as a driver of discovery, economic growth, and social mobility.

A board-certified clinical psychologist, Dr. Conway is also an accomplished scholar whose work has influenced the fields of mental health and aging. She remains deeply committed to supporting students, faculty, and the distinct strengths of each school within the Rutgers community.

Dr. Conway earned her degrees from Cornell University, Columbia University, and Adelphi University. She brings to her leadership a strong conviction that higher education transforms lives—and that each graduating class carries that impact forward.

Student Speakers

Faith Chukwudima, *Bachelor of Arts, Labor and Employment Relations

Faith is graduating with a B.A. in Labor Studies and Employment Relations, along with a minor in Health and Society. During her time in college, she has been actively engaged in advocacy and leadership, notably through her work with the Rutgers Women's Political Caucus, where she amplified women's voices in her role as Newsletter Head. She also contributed to destigmatizing mental health and increasing awareness of campus resources as a Peer Mental Health Educator.

Grounded in a deep commitment to justice, Faith plans to pursue research and a career in medicine, aiming to address disparities in racialized healthcare and expand access to equitable care. Her journey has been shaped by adversity, which she has met with resilience, guided by love and gratitude. Faith is honored to represent the graduating Class of 2026 and looks forward to making a meaningful impact on healthcare and beyond.

Emilie J. Ochoa, *Master of Human Resource Management

Emilie Ochoa is graduating with her master's degree in Human Resource Management from Rutgers School of Management and Labor Relations. She previously earned her bachelor's degree in Human Resource Management from Rutgers University in 2024. Emilie currently works as an Administrative Analyst in the Human Resources Office at the New Jersey Department of Environmental Protection, where she supports employees through payroll inquiries and assists the Director of Human Resources with reports, workflow initiatives, and efforts to improve overall efficiency.

In addition to her professional career, she proudly serves in the United States Army as a Military Police Officer and commissioned through the Rutgers Army ROTC program. Known for her positive attitude and dedication to service, Emilie is proud to represent the Class of 2026 as a first-generation Latina, passionate about leadership, resilience, and creating opportunities for future generations.

Elizabeth Konze, *Master of Labor and Employment Relations

Elizabeth Konze is graduating with her master's in Labor and Employment Relations, along with a certificate in Conflict Resolution in the Workplace. She earned her bachelor's degree in Business Administration with a concentration in Human Resource Management from the University of Pittsburgh in April 2024 at 19 years old, displaying her dedication and love for learning. Elizabeth has completed several internships, held full-time employment, and is excited about her next opportunity as a LaunchPAD Trainee at Crum & Forster. As a first-generation undergraduate and graduate student, Elizabeth's academic journey would not have been possible without the unwavering support of her family. She is beyond grateful for her family and friends who could attend today, and looks forward to celebrating later with more loved ones and her beloved dachshund, Gus! She is proud to represent the SMLR Class of 2026!

Guest Speaker

Adam M. Opitz, *Employee Relations Manager, Piedmont Healthcare

Adam Opitz is an HR and employee relations leader. His career has been driven by one conviction: that advocating for people is more powerful than litigating against them. A two-time Rutgers University alumnus, Adam earned his Bachelor of Arts in Sociology from the School of Arts and Sciences and his Master of Labor and Employment Relations from the School of Management and Labor Relations.

Growing up with a union-worker father gave Adam a frontline lens that no classroom could replicate. Combined with a background in sales and an early pull toward law, he found his calling not in the courtroom but at the table — where dialogue and resolution create more lasting change. That foundation carried him from corporate investigations at ADP through progressive leadership across the Berkshire Hathaway family of companies, spanning the rail and metals distribution industries — and ultimately to Employee Relations Manager at Piedmont Healthcare, Georgia’s largest health system.

A former President of the LERA Rutgers University Chapter and former Vice President of the Rutgers School of Management and Labor Relations Alumni Association, Adam holds certifications in Civil Mediation, Targeted Selection®, and Negotiation & Conflict Resolution through Rutgers’ Labor Education Action Research Network (LEARN) — a toolkit built in the same spirit as the career behind it.

SMLR Alumni Association Representative

Chioma Peace Okonkwo, Class of 2024

Chioma Peace Okonkwo, PHRI, is an HR Specialist with more than six years of experience supporting HR operations, compliance, and data-driven decision-making across diverse industries. She currently serves as President of the SMLR Alumni Association.

She holds a master’s degree in Human Resource Management with a focus on Analytics from Rutgers School of Management and Labor Relations, and a bachelor’s degree in Banking and Finance from University of Nigeria Nsukka.

Chioma is a recipient of the SHRM and NAHR Graduate Scholarship and was part of the first-place team in the Jim Chelius Case Competition, contributing to innovative HR strategy and problem-solving. She previously served as President of the Rutgers University SHRM Graduate Chapter, where she led initiatives focused on student engagement, professional development, and industry collaboration.

Her work is grounded in leveraging HR data to drive informed decision-making, enhance employee experience, and support organizational effectiveness.

Honor Awards

Undergraduate students who achieve a 3.70 GPA or higher within their majors receive an excellence pin and a certificate upon graduation. Undergraduate students who achieve a cumulative GPA of 3.70 or higher receive white or gold cords, and those who achieve a Thesis Honor (SMLR Honors Program) receive a wedgewood blue and gold cord.

Master's students who achieve a 4.00 GPA within their course of study receive gold cords.

SMLR Honors Program

The School of Management and Labor Relations has a SMLR Honors Program at the undergraduate level that selects a few high-achieving students to write a research paper across an entire academic year that then culminates in a presentation to the faculty. This year, we are proud to report that the following six SMLR students successfully completed the honors program requirements: Amanda Dyott, Heavyn Foster, Farzana Jafari, Iyaa Kalra, Sophia Ruffini, and Sophia Yeh.

James R. Chelius Teaching Award

The James R. Chelius Award was created in memory of Jim Chelius, a beloved teacher, scholar, and mentor in the Department of Human Resource Management. HRM students nominate a recipient and the selection is made by a committee of HRM faculty. This year's teaching award goes to William Kane, Teaching Instructor.

Labor Studies and Employment Relations Teaching Award

The Labor Studies and Employment Relations Teaching Award recognizes the teaching excellence of a LSER faculty member. Undergraduates, graduate students and colleagues nominate a recipient and a selection is made by a committee of LSER faculty. This year's teaching award goes to Saul Rubinstein, Professor.

Best Required Course Award

The Best Required Course Award recognizes a faculty member in each department for excellence in the preparation and delivery of a required SMLR course that represents critical learning in the field, stimulates additional learning beyond the course, and enables students to apply what they have learned to further their career. Undergraduate and graduate students along with faculty nominate a recipient and the selection is made by a committee of SMLR faculty. This year's recipients are Peter Rokkos, Assistant Teaching Professor, and Tobias Schulze-Cleven, Associate Professor.

Doctoral Student Teaching Excellence Award

The Doctoral Student Teaching Excellence Award recognizes doctoral students for delivering meaningful, engaging, and inclusive learning environments and creating innovative teaching approaches or content within SMLR. The Ph.D. Program Director nominates eligible doctoral students, and upon review of the nominees' supporting materials, the Dean, Department Chair, and Ph.D. Program Director make the final selections. This year's Doctoral Student Teaching Excellence Award recipients are Ph.D. candidates Lauren Gilbert and Thomas (TJ) Raineri.

Alma Mater

“ON THE BANKS OF THE OLD RARITAN”

Howard Newton Fuller, Class of 1874

From far and near we came to Rutgers,
And resolved to learn all that we can:
    And so we settled down,
    In that noisy college town,
On the banks of the old Raritan

Refrain:

On the banks of the old Raritan (my friends)
Where old Rutgers evermore shall stand,
    For has she not stood
    Since the time of the flood,
On the banks of the old Raritan

Then sing aloud to Alma Mater
And keep the scarlet in the van'
    For with her motto high
    Rutgers name shall never die
On the banks of the old Raritan

Congratulations, Class of 2026!

We are proud to welcome you to the Rutgers School of Management and Labor Relations Alumni and Friends, a constituent of the Rutgers Alumni Association as well as a charter member of the Rutgers University Alumni Association!

Today you join the more than 5,000 alumni of SMLR as well as a vast network of close to 500,000 Rutgers alumni worldwide. We are proud to call you ours and hope you will continue to stay connected with us by participating in alumni networking events, mentoring SMLR students, and supporting our school community.

This is only the beginning of what we hope will be a fulfilling journey!

With warmth and sincere best wishes,

The SMLR Alumni and Friends Executive Board

Chioma Peace Okonkwo, MHRM'24, President

Melissa Daniel, MLER'01, Co-Chair

Rob Lovich, MLER'23, Co-Chair

Muwa Feng, MHRM'24, Vice President
