Course Learning Management System: Canvas
TA Email Address: cdv32@scarletmail.rutgers.edu

COURSE DESCRIPTION: We are focused on the effective management of the flow of talent into and through organizations. This course covers human resource planning, recruiting and selection, career transitions and other workforce movement. An important goal of the class will be to provide opportunities to develop skills that are relevant to effectively managing talent flow.

COURSE REQUIREMENTS & EXPECTATIONS: Online courses require discipline, dedication and excellent time management skills. Taking an asynchronous online course allows you the convenience of being able to learn at any time of day or night and in any location, however, you are also responsible for adhering to all due dates. As a student in this course I expect that you will:

- Read the assigned textbook chapters and view the lecture videos early during each week. Doing so allows you to be an active informed participant during the discussion forum for each week.
- Check Canvas often, as in, every day!
- All course material is subject to assessment, even if it was not covered during the lecture video. Your success is directly related to your individual efforts in this course.

METHOD OF INSTRUCTION: This is an asynchronous online course delivered via the Canvas Learning Management System. To access Canvas, you must use your netID and password. All course announcements are posted to Canvas, and sent to your Rutgers email address, so you should be sure to regularly check this email address. It is an asynchronous course, which means that all of the course activities occur at your convenience, and there are no required meeting times. However, there will be opportunities for a virtual office hour or live chat session to address course questions.

TECHNOLOGY REQUIREMENTS: You will need a reliable stable Internet connection, as well as a reliable computer, whether a desktop, laptop or tablet. A webcam and headphones are highly recommended. It is a good idea to figure out an alternative computer option should your current machine fail you. That is, do you have another computer at home or at work, can you access your local library or even on your Internet-enabled mobile device?

COURSE STRUCTURE: This course is organized into 15 weekly Modules on Canvas. Each week begins on Monday and ends on Sunday, with the exception of the first and last weeks of the semester. You will need to complete all of the week’s activities by Sunday of each week unless stated otherwise. Within each week’s module will be the following items:
- Module Topic Introduction (text and video)
- Lecture Notes

- Multimedia (lecture videos, interviews, podcasts, etc.)
- Discussion Question
- Assignments (individual & team exercises)
- Quiz (with the exception of Weeks 1, 5, 9 & 15)

ASSESSMENT

EXAMS: There are three non-cumulative exams that consist of multiple-choice, true-false and essay items. Any content from the assigned readings, lecture videos, and discussion forums can appear on the exams. All exams are closed-book, and you are expected to complete the exams without any form of assistance. The exam dates are noted on the course schedule so do be sure to add them to your calendar. Make-up exams are only administered to students with a documented excuse (illness, death in the family, religious observance, medical emergency, etc.) and who contact me within 24 hours of the scheduled exam time. Make-up exams must be taken within one week of the scheduled exam time at the professor’s convenience. In total, the three exams are worth 300 points or 60% of your final grade.

TEAM PROJECT: You will be working in a team throughout the semester to conduct a mini job analysis and to develop structured interview questions for a customer service job. Your team will present this work via a 5-minute video presentation at the end of the semester. This project is designed so that you can demonstrate your mastery of the course material and its application in a “real-world” scenario. You will be assessed both as a team and as individual contributors to your team. Your grade is dependent on your contributions to the project, and teammate evaluations will impact your individual project grade. The team project is worth 75 points and comprises 15% of your final grade.

ASSIGNMENTS & QUIZZES: Throughout the semester, you will complete exercises that serve to solidify the course concepts. These exercises will include weekly quizzes, as well as the team discussion of a case study. In total, the assignments and quizzes are worth 75 points or 15% of your final grade.

DISCUSSION FORUMS: As a class, we have entered into an academic contract, and as such, students are expected to practice professionalism at all times. It is expected that you will be respectful and courteous to your colleagues throughout all of your interactions. Inappropriate behavior, offensive language, harassment, or posting of any media that could be considered offensive is prohibited and will not be tolerated in this course. Here are some useful Guidelines for communicating in this course:

- Timeliness is important: a good discussion entails keeping the dialogue going (throughout the given week) with your colleagues. In order to facilitate the dialogue, it is critical you adhere to the Discussion post due dates so you have sufficient time to respond to each other's posts. Please do not wait until the last day to post your responses.
- Be courteous: use appropriate language. Do not use offensive language. Be mindful of your tone. Use humor cautiously, as everyone may not share your sense of humor. In general, don’t be a jerk!
- Respect others: if you do not agree with someone’s point of view, explain your view and your reason for not agreeing in a respectful manner. Using ALL CAPS, for example, may indicate anger or frustration. If you want to emphasize your point, you can italicize or bold your font.
- Show a scholarly attitude: refrain from responding with just “I agree” or “I don’t agree”. Be sure to support your reasoning in a well-written response, provide appropriate references and analysis.
- Stay on topic: focus on the question asked in the discussion forum.
- Adhere to deadlines: submit your post by the specified due date. This ensures that everyone has a chance to view/read and respond to the posts.
- Beware of the credibility of your resources: when you post articles or other resources make sure the articles are relevant to the topic and come from a credible source.
- Give proper credit: if you are making references to other’s work (articles, papers), be sure to acknowledge the author(s) and properly cite and reference the resource.
- Avoid spamming: do not post resources that you suspect may be a spam.
- For private matters use email: if you need to discuss a private matter with the professor, teaching aide or with other students in the class, do so through your Rutgers email or the Canvas Inbox feature. Do not post discussions of a personal matter to the discussion board.
- Use your Rutgers email address: for communicating coursework or any other activities related to your course, please use your Rutgers email address. This minimizes the risk of hacking and spam related interruptions to your email.
- Make a note of which thread you are posting to and do so accordingly. Use a Subject Line that describes your post.
- Additional Resources:
  - Discussion Board Netiquette
  - 15 Rules of Netiquette for Online Discussion Boards

EXTRA CREDIT: You may earn up to five extra credit points by submitting a news article summary. You will need to locate a current news article that is relevant to staffing, summarize the article and explain its relevance to the course (in no more than 500 words). Then, in a brief video (think TikTok length) share the article summary with me and the class in the week that corresponds with your chosen topic. You must sign up for an extra credit presentation topic, and have your article approved by your assigned teaching aide one week before your desired presentation topic.

The Extra Credit sign-up period is between Tuesday, September 15 and Friday, September 18. You may sign up for a presentation topic based on your last name. The first three people to sign up for a topic may share their summary video. Your extra credit news article summary must be submitted by the Friday of the week of your presentation topic. Extra credit presentations must be presented according to the following schedule.

ACADEMIC INTEGRITY: Academic dishonesty is harmful to students, faculty, the university and society. Academic dishonesty includes any unauthorized collaboration or misrepresentation in the submission of academic work. In all written work, the student’s name on the work is considered a statement that the work is theirs alone, except as otherwise indicated. Students are expected to provide proper citations for the statements and ideas of others whether submitted word for word or paraphrased. Failure to provide proper citations is considered plagiarism and offenders will be subject to the charge of plagiarism. Work submitted by students on quizzes, assignments, and examinations should be an honest representation of that student’s effort and should not involve unauthorized collaboration, unauthorized use of notes, or unauthorized access to prior information about the assessment. All members of a team are responsible for the academic integrity of their submissions. To be clear, any submission with your name on it should meet the integrity standards of the HRM Department, the School of Management and Labor Relations, and Rutgers University.

All incidents of academic dishonesty are reported to the HRM Undergraduate Program, the SMLR Academic Integrity Facilitator, as well as the Rutgers University Office of Student Conduct.

All students must read and affirm that they agree with the terms of the Academic Integrity Contract and complete the related Academic Integrity Assignment on Canvas.

RESOURCES FOR STUDENTS

ACCOMMODATIONS: I am committed to providing a welcoming and accessible classroom for all students. Students who need accommodations due to a disability should provide me with the appropriate documentation from the Office of Disability Services for Students as early in the semester as possible, and definitely before the first exam.

University Statement on Accommodations: “Rutgers University welcomes students with disabilities into all of the University's educational programs. In order to receive consideration for reasonable accommodations, a student with a disability must contact the appropriate disability services office at the campus where you are officially enrolled, participate in an intake interview, and provide documentation: https://ods.rutgers.edu/students/documentation-guidelines. If the documentation supports your request for reasonable accommodations, your campus's disability services office will provide you with a Letter of Accommodations. Please share this letter with your instructors and discuss the accommodations with them as early in your courses as possible. To begin this process, please complete the Registration form on the ODS web site at: https://ods.rutgers.edu/students/registration-form.”

Dr. Hazel-Anne M. Johnson-Marcus
HRM-SMLR Rutgers University
The Office of the Dean of Students: “Our office helps students with exceptional difficulties due to medical, emotional, social, psychological, financial, confidential or family-related issues. We may provide letters to faculty for extended (a week or more) absences or circumstances that are complex, confidential or sensitive in nature. In these instances, the Dean’s role is to verify documentation of the student’s situation. The final decision is always up to the faculty regarding makeup exams, extensions, or other options.” Any student who is dealing with financial challenges that impact their food or housing security, and believes this may affect their performance in the course is urged to contact the Dean of Students office for support, http://deanofstudents.rutgers.edu/. You should also notify the professor if you feel comfortable doing so.

Counseling, ADAP & Psychiatric Services (CAPS)
CAPS is a University mental health support service that includes counseling, alcohol and other drug assistance, and psychiatric services staffed by a team of professionals within Rutgers Health services to support students’ efforts to succeed at Rutgers University. CAPS offers a variety of services that include: individual therapy, group therapy and workshops, crisis intervention, referral to specialists in the community and consultation and collaboration with campus partners, http://health.rutgers.edu/medical-counseling-services/counseling.

Crisis Intervention: http://health.rutgers.edu/medical-counseling-services/counseling/crisis-intervention
Report a Concern: http://health.rutgers.edu/do-something-to-help/

Violence Prevention & Victim Assistance (VPVA)
The Office for Violence Prevention and Victim Assistance provides confidential crisis intervention, counseling and advocacy for victims of sexual and relationship violence and stalking to students, staff and faculty. To reach staff during office hours when the university is open or to reach an advocate after hours, call 848-932-1181. www.vpva.rutgers.edu.

COURSE QUESTIONS: Should you have any administrative questions about exams, quizzes, due dates, attendance etc., please take the following steps: 1) first check the syllabus; 2) next, you can check the Canvas FAQ Forum to see whether others may have had the same question. 3) If your question has not been asked or answered, then you can pose your question in the Canvas FAQ Forum. 4) If you do not receive a response to your question within 24 hours, then you should email your teaching aide.

| Teaching Aide: Ms. Claudia Vazallo | TA Email Address: cdv32@scarletmail.rutgers.edu |

Should you have any questions about the course assignments, you can also pose your question in the Canvas FAQ Forum. If you do not receive a response to your question within 24 hours, then you should email your teaching aide. Please note that inquiries about a grade on a quiz or an assignment should be submitted to your teaching aide prior to the corresponding exam. For example, an inquiry about Quiz 2 should not be submitted after Exam 1 has passed, so you should be sure to check your grades on Canvas regularly.

Should you have any questions about the course concepts, you can also pose your question in the Canvas FAQ Forum. If you do not receive a response to your question within 24 hours, then you should send me an email (hmj17@scarletmail.rutgers.edu).

When sending an email to the professor or the teaching aide please be sure to title it appropriately as we do receive many emails so clear subject titles help us to sort them accordingly. Here is a sample subject title: 311-90-Staffing question about Assignment 1.

Please note that you should check the syllabus and Canvas Chat before sending an email to the teaching aide or to the professor. If the answer to your question is contained in one of those sources, this greatly reduces the likelihood of receiving a response to your email. You are welcome to and I encourage you to answer your classmates’ questions in the Canvas Chat!
