Course Description
This course will examine the relationships between corporate finance and human resource management/labor relations. We will cover the connections between business strategy, financial strategy and human resource strategy. In addition, you will learn how to use financial decision making techniques for assessing and developing HR practices and programs.

SMLR Learning Objectives
This course is designed to help students attain the following SMLR learning objectives:

II) Quantitative Skills – Apply appropriate quantitative and qualitative methods for research workplace issues.
   o Formulate, evaluate, and communicate conclusions and inferences from quantitative information
   o Apply quantitative methods to analyze data for HR decision making including cost-benefit analyses, ROI, etc. (HRM)
   o Apply qualitative methods appropriately, alone and in combination with quantitative methods

VI) Application – Demonstrate an understanding of how to apply knowledge necessary for effective work performance
   o Apply concepts and substantive institutional knowledge, to understanding contemporary developments related to work o Understand the legal, regulatory and ethical issues related to their field
   o Develop human resource management functional capabilities used to select, motivate, and develop workers (HRM)
   o Understand the internal and external alignment and measurement of human resource practices (HRM)
VII) Professional Development – Demonstrate an ability to interact with and influence others in a professional manner, and to effectively present ideas and recommendations
  o Develop effective presentation skills appropriate for different settings and audiences
  o Develop career management skills to navigate one’s career
  o Develop capabilities to work and lead in a multicultural and diverse environment
  o Work productively in teams, in social networks, and on an individual basis
  o Develop cultural agility competencies
  o Demonstrate lifelong personal and professional development skills

Course-specific Learning Objectives
Upon completing this course, you will be able to:

Special Needs Accommodations
Rutgers University welcomes students with disabilities into all of the University’s educational programs. In order to receive consideration for reasonable accommodations, a student with a disability must contact the appropriate disability services office at the campus where you are officially enrolled, participate in an intake interview, and provide documentation: https://ods.rutgers.edu/students/documentation-guidelines. If the documentation supports your request for reasonable accommodations, your campus’s disability services office will provide you with a Letter of Accommodations. Please share this letter with your instructors and discuss the accommodations with them as early in your courses as possible. To begin this process, please complete the Registration form (https://webapps.rutgers.edu/student-ods/forms/registration).
Lateness Policy
Please note the lateness policy for each course component as follows:

No extra credit assignments will be given during the semester.

You will need to bring a calculator to each class session including the three exams. (A simple one that does basic arithmetic will be sufficient.)

To help you get started, please review the other aids in Learning Support Resources posted in Canvas before Module 1. These tools and resources will help you become acclimated to the way this online course works and prepare you to continue the course online with the weekly module format.

Students are responsible for all administrative announcements including any changes announced on Canvas.

Examinations
Three exams will cover all course material, including lectures, discussions, assignments, quizzes, and readings. Each exam will cover approximately one-third of the course material. The exams will be non-cumulative.

Make-up Policy
The dates of each of the three exams are noted on the course agenda. An exam grade of zero (0) will be assigned to any student who is absent without a legitimate excuse on the date of a regularly scheduled test. Legitimate excuses include, when the instructor emails the class announcing that class is suspended, and other critical circumstances such as death in family.

Please make sure to contact the instructor immediately upon learning you will not be able to make an exam session. A make-up exam will be held at a time that is convenient for the instructor. An officially cancelled examination will be held as rescheduled by the instructor.

Attendance and Participation
The attendance and participation grade is comprised of 40% attendance and 60% class discussion/exercise responses. Everyone begins with 80 out of the total possible 100 points. Points can be gained for insightful contributions to class and perfect attendance, and points can be lost for absenteeism, being unprepared, and misconduct during class. For each class session, you are expected to have read the assigned reading for that particular session, stay for the full session, and be prepared to discuss topics in class. Attendance at every In-person Class Lecture is required. Each week will also include two or more recorded lectures that may be viewed asynchronously.
Module 1 begins on Tuesday, May 30. During each week, you will complete three modules with the following course components:

In-person Class Lectures – Tuesdays and Thursdays from 6:00 pm to 7:00 pm, Eastern Time - Mandatory live interactive lectures you are required to attend. Attendance will be taken at each session and counted toward your Attendance and Participation grade.

Recorded Lectures – Weekly lectures will be posted within Canvas and may be watched as asynchronously during the week.

Assignments (Graded) - Weekly assignment on module material that needs to be submitted as directed in text box or dropbox.

Discussions (Graded) - Asynchronous discussion board among the students based on four questions on the weekly material. Students post responses and interact with others through a virtual discussion board. Discussion groups will be set up starting in the second week.

Quizzes (Graded) – Weekly check on terms, concepts and calculations from the weekly module.

Online Office Hours – Tuesdays, 4:00pm to 5:00pm, Eastern Time, and Thursdays, 6:00pm to 7:00pm, Eastern Time serve as office hours to discuss the weekly material and address other concerns. The virtual office will be available as scheduled through the Zoom tab in our Canvas course site. Additional times will be available by appointment.

Term Project
You will work in teams or individually to do the following:

I. Select a long-term, capital investment for your Human Resources group, e.g. an applicant tracking system, recruitment assessment center, new training conference center, etc.

II. Estimate the cost and benefits of your investment using present value.

III. Calculate the payback period, net present value, benefit cost ratio, and internal rate of return of the proposed investment.

IV. Submit an executive summary paper (two to three pages maximum including your one-page Excel spreadsheet). Please cite all references in a bibliography.

V. Present the proposal to the senior HR leadership team (instructor and class).

Grades will be based on the quality of the following:

I. Cost/Benefit Analysis (paper and class presentation)

II. Excel Spreadsheet

III. Executive summary paper including upfront statement of purpose and recommendation and informative section headings

IV. If working in a team, peer reviews of your contribution to the team

Teams will be set up midway through the course as we cover related material. At that time, students may opt to complete the project individually instead of as a team. This option may be preferred by students with connectivity or time-zone issues making it difficult to connect with a team. Once student is assigned to the project as part of a team or as an individual, that assignment will need to be maintained until the project is completed. To help you connect, you can use Big Blue Button to meet and shares documents. You should collaborate with your project team members using the project teams which will be set up for you in Canvas under People. Students will present these proposals during a live class.

Academic Integrity
We in the School of Management and Labor Relations take academic integrity very seriously. Violations include: cheating, fabrication, plagiarism, denying others access to information or material, and facilitating violations of academic integrity. Please consult the university’s Academic Integrity Policy summarizes the student’s obligations below.

http://academicintegrity.rutgers.edu/academic-integrity-policy/

Students should be cautioned about sharing course material, especially quiz or exam questions, on websites as such activity may consist of academic dishonesty. Please also note all chapter slides are copyrighted and may only be used as authorized for this class. These slides may not be scanned, copied or duplicated to a publicly accessible website.
Academic Integrity Contract

(To be signed and uploaded in dropbox as directed in class)

All members of the Rutgers University community are expected to behave in an ethical and moral fashion, respecting the human dignity of all members of the community and resisting behavior that may cause danger or harm to others through violence, theft, or bigotry. All members of the Rutgers University community are expected to adhere to the civil and criminal laws of the local community, state, and nation, and to regulations promulgated by the University. All members of the Rutgers University community are expected to observe established standards of scholarship and academic freedom by respecting the intellectual property of others and by honoring the right of all students to pursue their education in an environment free from harassment and intimidation. Please see http://studentconduct.rutgers.edu for details regarding the Student Code of Conduct. Please see http://policies.rutgers.edu/sites/policies/files/10.2.13%-20current.pdf for details regarding the Academic Integrity Policy.

Similarly, all students and faculty members of the academic community at the School of Management and Labor Relations should uphold high standards for personal conduct, ethical behavior, and professional integrity. In the area of academic integrity, students are expected to refrain from cheating, fabricating information, plagiarizing, inappropriately denying others access to material, and facilitating others in academic dishonesty. Please see http://studentconduct.rutgers.edu/student-conduct-processes/university-code-of-student-conduct/#1495569259725-1f451194-472b for detailed descriptions of each type of action.

Any of the following acts, when committed by a student, is an act of academic dishonesty and decreases the genuine achievements of other students and scholars. Academic dishonesty includes, but is not limited to, any of the following:

Plagiarism/False Representation of Work
- Quoting directly or paraphrasing portions of someone else’s work without acknowledging the source.
- Submitting the same work, or major portions thereof, including presentations, to satisfy the requirements of more than one course without permission from the instructor.
- Using data or interpretative material for a report or presentation without acknowledging the sources or the collaborators.
- Failing to acknowledge assistance from others, such as help with research, statistical analysis, or field data collection, in a paper, examination, or project report.
- Submitting purchased materials such as a term paper as your own work.
- Copying or presenting material verbatim from any source without using quotation marks.
- Copying from any source and altering a few words to avoid exact quotation, without the appropriate documentation or by using improper documentation of the source.
- Rewording the major concept found in a source but then omitting documentation or improperly citing the source.
- Submitting as one’s own any work created by someone else (e.g., paper, project, speech, video, exercise, etc.) without crediting them. Large duplication of someone else’s work should be avoided unless you obtain express permission from both the instructor and originator of the work.
- Fabricating or misrepresenting data or information
- Forging signatures
Cheating

- Copying work on examinations.
- Acting to facilitate copying during an exam.
- Sharing answers through technology or in written or verbal form when such interactions are prohibited.
- Using prohibited materials, such as books, notes, phones, or calculators during an examination.
- Working with another student on an assignment when such collaboration is prohibited.
- Stealing or having in one’s possession without permission any materials, or property belonging to or having been generated by faculty, staff, or another student for the course.
- Willfully offering to do another student’s work so they may represent it as their own.
- Assisting another student in cheating or plagiarizing.
- Doing another student’s work, excluding collaborative learning assignments or joint assignments approved by the instructor.

Engaging in any of the above behaviors can result in an F on the examination or project, an F in the course, denial of access to internships, suspension for one or more semesters, or permanent expulsion from the School of Management and Labor Relations at Rutgers University.

I, ____________________________, understand the Policies on Academic Integrity and the Student Code of Conduct at Rutgers University and the School of Management and Labor Relations. Furthermore, I understand the consequences of unethical behavior.

We all share a responsibility in creating an ethical environment. I resolve to uphold and support high standards for ethics and integrity at Rutgers University. If I see, hear, or observe violations of ethics and integrity I will report them to my instructor, Department Chair, or Dean.
