

BRIEF SYLLABUS
38:578:538 Financial Analysis and Corporate Governance

COURSE DESCRIPTION:

Corporate governance issues; financial statement analysis; and cost accounting for collective bargaining and workplace management. This class is one of two that meets the finance requirement.

SMLR LEARNING OBJECTIVES:

II. Quantitative Skills – Apply appropriate quantitative and qualitative methods for research on workplace issues.

Understanding financial statements is an essential skill for both union and management employment relations professionals. Corporate governance is an important context employment relations.

ASSESSMENT LEARNING OBJECTIVES:

Students will be assessed on their qualitative and quantitative analysis of information in problem sets and exams.

TYPICAL COURSE REQUIREMENTS*:

Problem Sets	30%
Student Participation	10%
Midterm Exam: Financial Analysis	25%
Project	10%
Final Exam: Corporate Governance	25%

*Course materials and requirements are subject to change.