

575:202:01 History of Labor and Work in the US, 1880-1945 – Preliminary and Subject to Change

Professor: Dr. Christopher Hayes
Class meetings: Monday and Thursday, 12:35-1:55
Office hours: By appointment, via Zoom
Contact: chayes@smlr.rutgers.edu

Teaching Assistants: James Boyle and Jo Flanagan
Office hours: By appointment
Contact: jlb650@scarletmail.rutgers.edu and jrf222@rutgers.edu

INTRODUCTION

This course will explore the history of working people the United States from the end of Reconstruction through the end of World War II. Through looking at labor history, we will learn about social and political history as well. This course is aimed primarily at students who have little or no experience with college-level history and assumes no prior knowledge of the historical developments we will cover.

COURSE STRUCTURE

This course will blend synchronous and asynchronous modes of instruction. Lectures will be recorded and posted to Canvas, where you will also conduct group discussions. However, a significant portion of the class meetings will be conducted synchronously, meaning we all meet together at 12:35 PM on a Monday or Thursday to have discussions and get on the same page about important topics and themes in the course. We will not have meetings every Monday and Thursday, but you are expected to be available for the full one hour and twenty minutes every time this class is scheduled to meet. For example, if you have a job or internship that will require you to be present at 1:30 PM on any one of the days on which this class is scheduled, you should drop this class, as you will not be able to complete all requirements asynchronously. Some dates are already listed on the syllabus, and there will be others, announced with not more than a few days' notice, as you are expected to be available. I can tell you now that the first day, September 3, will be conducted synchronously, meaning we will all be present in a Zoom meeting beginning at 12:35 PM.

LEARNING OBJECTIVES

The student is able to:

Core Curriculum: SCL, HST, WCr and WCd

- Explain the development of some aspect of a society or culture over time. (Goal K)
- Understand different theories about human culture, social identity, economic entities, political systems, and other forms of social organization. (Goal M)
- Communicate complex ideas effectively, in standard written English, to a general audience, and respond effectively to editorial feedback from peers, instructors, and/or supervisors through successive drafts and revision. (Goal S)
- Communicate effectively in modes appropriate to a discipline or area of inquiry; evaluate and critically assess sources and use the conventions of attribution and citation correctly; and analyze and synthesize information and ideas from multiple sources to generate new insights. (Goal T)

School of Management and Labor Relations:

- Communicate effectively at a level and in modes appropriate to an entry-level professional. (Goal I)
- Demonstrate an understanding of relevant theories and apply them given the background context of a particular work situation. (Goal IV)

575:202:01 History of Labor and Work in the US, 1880-1945 – Preliminary and Subject to Change

Labor Studies and Employment Relations Department:

- Demonstrate an understanding of the perspectives, theories and concepts in the field of labor and employment relations. (Goal 1)
- Make an argument using contemporary or historical evidence. (Goal 4)

REQUIRED TEXT

Rosenzweig, Lichtenstein, Brown, Jaffee, Who Built America? Vol. 2 (Third Edition, ISBN 978-0312446925)

The textbook will be provided to you as a PDF on Canvas, but used copies are quite inexpensive online, if you desire a tangible version.

YOUR RESPONSIBILITIES

Read the syllabus

Do the readings

Turn in your assignments on time

Make sure your assignments are submitted

Attend the meetings

EVALUATION

Written assignments

You will write two papers this semester, on topics to be announced. Each accounts for 20% of your final grade. You will write several drafts of each. All are mandatory, as is participation in peer review. If you miss a peer review session, it is your responsibility to make it up, or you will receive no credit for it. Missing your writing conference, or coming unprepared, will earn you a significant reduction on your paper grade. Each part of the process counts toward your final assignment grade. I expect an honest attempt at a full paper for all drafts. Doing otherwise will negatively impact your grade. It is your responsibility to make sure you turn in each draft and your peer editing form. If you do not have a submission receipt from Canvas, then you have not submitted your essay, and you will be graded accordingly. Declining to make substantial changes to your drafts (unless otherwise advised) will result in a failing grade. Turning in no final paper, or turning in only a final paper, or turning in the same paper multiple times, will result in a zero.

Lateness Policy

All late assignments will be marked down. One grade will be deducted for every 24-hour period (or portion thereof) your paper is late. That is, a B paper will turn into a C paper if it is up to 24 hours late, and into a D paper if it is up to 48 hours late. While the drafts are not assigned letter grades, failing to turn them or turning them in late will have the same effect on the final draft you hand in for a grade.

You must complete all written assignments in order to receive credit for this course. We will turn back all assignments in a timely manner. If we do not turn back your assignment, it is your job to bring this to our attention. If you believe we have not recorded a grade for an assignment you have turned in, you must clear this up during the semester. After the semester is over, we will not be able to consider claims that you turned in an assignment if we have no record of it.

Discussion forums

For most classes, you will have discussion posts due on Canvas. I will post primary sources and several questions for you to answer about each. You are also required to respond to at least one of your discussion group members, for each discussion topic, which helps to make what you are doing actual discussions.

For example: your first discussion posts will be due at 12:35 PM on Tuesday, September 8 (I know we don't meet on Tuesdays, normally, but please see scheduling.rutgers.edu/scheduling/academic-calendar). Your response to at least one of your peers, in each discussion topic, will be due by 12:35 PM on Thursday, September 10. All other discussion posts will generally be due on Mondays, with responses due Thursdays.

575:202:01 History of Labor and Work in the US, 1880-1945 – Preliminary and Subject to Change

Please indicate which questions you are answering, and separate each into its own paragraph.

Your initial answers and responses should both be substantive contributions, every time. A single-sentence answer and “I agree!” as a response will not earn credit. Please put some time into these, as they are not box-checking exercises to take up your time. I don’t expect multiple-paragraph answers (though if you are really feeling it, go for it!), but these discussions are a prime method of learning, and the more work you put into them, the better off we all are.

All discussions are mandatory, and any that you do not complete will result in a lower grade.

Cheating/plagiarism

There are serious consequences, including expulsion, for both cheating and taking someone else’s work without attribution. The university has clear, strict policies on these matters. I will report all violations. If you have not done so already, please familiarize yourself with the university’s academic integrity policy by visiting academicintegrity.rutgers.edu The relevant parts are brief and straightforward. If you have any questions, please see me.

Exams

There will be a first exam due November 2, and a second exam due December 13.

Your final grade will be calculated as follows:

Discussions and meeting attendance	20%
Paper I	20%
Paper II	20%
First exam	20%
Second exam	20%

Use of Class Materials

Lectures and materials utilized in this course, including but not limited to the syllabus, videocasts, podcasts, visual presentations, assessments, and assignments, are protected by United States copyright laws as well as Rutgers University policy. As the instructor of this course, I possess sole copyright ownership. You are permitted to take notes for personal use or to provide to a classmate also currently enrolled in this course. Under no other circumstances is distribution of recorded or written materials associated with this course permitted to any internet site or similar information-sharing platform without my express written consent. Doing so is a violation of the university’s Academic Integrity Policy. Instructors and students must provide notification if any part of online sessions are to be recorded, and such recordings cannot be circulated outside the course.

Statement on Abilities and Accommodations

Rutgers University welcomes students with disabilities into all of the University's educational programs. In order to receive consideration for reasonable accommodations, a student with a disability must contact the appropriate disability services office at the campus where you are officially enrolled, participate in an intake interview, and provide documentation: <https://ods.rutgers.edu/students/documentation-guidelines>. If the documentation supports your request for reasonable accommodations, your campus’s disability services office will provide you with a Letter of Accommodations. Please share this letter with your instructors and discuss the accommodations with them as early in your courses as possible. To begin this process, please complete the Registration form on the ODS web site at: ods.rutgers.edu/students/registration-form.

CLASS SCHEDULE

September 3 Introduction
Synchronous discussion day

September 8 The Failures of Reconstruction
Reading Who Built America Chapter One
Synchronous discussion day

September 14 The Gilded Age and the Chinese Exclusion Act
Reading Who Built America Chapter Two

September 21 Immigration and urbanization

September 28 Washington and Du Bois, and Imperialism
Reading Who Built America Chapter Three
Assignment First draft of first paper due
Synchronous discussion day

October 5 Populism and consumerism
Reading Who Built America Chapter Four
Assignment Second draft of first paper due

October 12 The Progressive Era and lynching
Reading Who Built America Chapter Five
Synchronous discussion day

October 19 Writing conferences

October 26 The Great Migration

October 29
Assignment Final draft of first paper due

November 2 World War I
Reading Who Built America Chapter Six
Assignment First exam due

November 9 Immigration and eugenics
Reading Who Built America Chapter Seven
Synchronous discussion day

November 16 The 1920s
Reading Who Built America Chapter Eight
Assignment First draft of second paper due

November 23 The Great Depression

575:202:01 History of Labor and Work in the US, 1880-1945 – Preliminary and Subject to Change

November 30 The New Deal

Reading Who Built America Chapter Nine

Assignment Final draft of second paper due

December 7 World War II

Reading Who Built America Chapter Ten

December 10 Slavery by Another Name

December 13 Second exam due