Course Requirements

Reading, Audio/Video Assignments

Reading

Students read textbook chapters, court decisions, and internet based resources. Required textbook: Robert N. Covington, *Employment Law in a Nutshell. 5th Edition. West Nutshell Series. ISBN 978-1-63460-763-6 (referred to as "Nutshell"). Additional required readings are already uploaded into the course shell or a link to external material is available.

Audio/Video

Students are required to watch instructor generated and other video presentations. All video material is provided through links within the course shell.

Writing Assignments

Two writing assignments require students to reflect on course material, engage in online searches to connect employment law concepts with current events and perceptions, and develop/state opinions. Students will choose a topic for their second writing assignment early in the semester. Writing assignments are organized into three sections: overview, reflection, resources.

Writing Assignment #1:
Writing Assignment #2 A and B:
Contemporary Issues: Employment Discrimination or Employee Rights (I split the class in half for the purposes of submitting the second writing assignment. Therefore, #2A denotes reference to students who choose a topic from the first half of the semester, while #2B denotes reference to students who chose a topic from the second half of the semester)

Peer Review and Comment on Writing Assignments 2 A and B
Students read and reflect on the content of each other’s writing assignments. Students exhibit their knowledge of employment law and critical thinking skills when defending their opinions shared within their comments. Students are required to make 4 comments on Writing Assignment 2A and 4 comments on Writing Assignment 2B for a total of 8 comments.

Forums
There will be 2 forums or threaded discussions. The first forum will begin in week 4 of the class and the second will begin in week 12. Students will be required to make three substantive comments in each forum. The forums will be based on topics of particular interest in the field of employment law.

Exams
Students complete 2 exams during the semester. Exams focus on required course material addressed in weeks listed below.

Weeks 1– 7: Assessed in the mid-term exam in week 8 of the class.

Exams consist of true/false and multiple choice questions. Each exam is open for 3 days, during this period students may enter the online exam area to complete the exam. A 90 minute limit is set for each exam.

Grading
A final grade is based on a 1000 point system. Each assignment is worth a specific number of points. Total points accumulated determines final course grade.

Writing Assignments: Two writing assignments 370 points

Writing Assignment Comments: Eight comments 160 points

Two Forums: Six Comments 120 points

Exams: Two exams 350 points

Total Points: 1000

Point Equivalent to Final Grade

Outstanding Good Satisfactory

1000 - 900 Points = A
899 – 860 Points = B+
799 – 760 Points = C+

859 – 800 Points = B
759 – 700 Points = C

Poor

699 - 600 Points = D
599 and below = F

POLICIES AND PROCEDURES

Class Sessions

The course week begins on Thursdays. A weekly message will be available in the Announcements area of the course by 12 pm every Thursday.

A week is 7 days in length. Information about content or assignment procedure is available within the weekly message.

Students may enter the course and engage in coursework at any time 24 hours a day, 7 days a week.

Due Dates
Writing Assignments must be submitted by 11:59 p.m. on the due date.

Late Submission Policy
If the paper is up to 24 hours late, I will deduct 10% of the value of the assignment; up to 48 hours late I will deduct 20% of the value of the assignment.

Writing assignments will not be accepted after the 48 hour late period.

Exams must be completed within the open period. Exams are usually open for three days. No extensions are available for missed exams.

Message Checking Policies

Messages Sent to Instructor’s Canvas Inbox
Unless students receive advance notification, the instructor will check her Canvas Inbox by 12:00 pm ET on regular workdays. If a student sends a comment or question, the instructor will address the contents of the message within 24 hours.

Messages Sent to Student Canvas Inbox
It is the responsibility of the student to regularly check for incoming messages. Messages are always sent through the Canvas messaging system. Students will receive a notification when a new message has been sent to his/her Canvas inbox. Forgetting or being unable to check for messages in one’s Canvas inbox is not an excuse.
