Assessment involves whether the student has:
1. grasped the content of required reading and audio/visual assignments.
2. made personal meaning and/or developed new perspectives on course topics.
3. engaged in critical thinking by considering workforce diversity, workplace inclusion, workplace equity considerations, past experiences and opportunities for professional growth.

NOTE: Students may share portions of their portfolio with the professor before submission for review and comment.

Discussions: Learning Community Forums

There are 9 discussions in this course. Students can choose 6 in which to engage or engage in all 9.
When students engage in more than the required 6 forums, lowest scores earned throughout the semester are dropped. One grading rubric for all discussions is provided for review. Review grading rubric to earn a high number of points!

 A student must participate in the forum in which the topic is the dimension of diversity s/he has researched to create a course project.

Why Are Forums Important?
1) Forums require engagement in course material. A more engaged student will retain information and make meaning out of the material being investigated.
2) Students can communicate their insights and thoughts pertaining to a topic, as well as learn from one another in the process.
3) The content of what a student chooses to share within a forum is a means for the professor to identify whether a student comprehends course concepts.

Course Project
Student teams choose, research and create a PowerPoint presentation on one of four dimensions of diversity: religious diversity, diversity of age, diversity of mental and physical abilities, diversity of sexual orientation and gender identity.

The course project is designed as a team assignment; students can choose to opt out of working in a team. Project requirements are the same whether students work in a team or on their own. Students earn extra credit when working in a team.

The highest quality course projects are shared with one’s learning community and discussed in one of the last 4 forums in the course.

The course project development involves a template and instructions. A grading rubric for the assignment is available and should be reviewed before beginning the assignment.

Students clearly communicate:
• social justice issues, specifically focused on employment and the workforce – ongoing societal stereotypes, exclusion, discrimination, and inequities.

• legal protections – national and state laws that offer legal remedies for discrimination

• critical challenges and opportunities in the workplace – identification of the desires and needs of employees who identify (or are identified by others) with a particular dimension of diversity and who are impacted by multiple identities (intersectionality); institutional and interpersonal actions and behaviors that create a more equitable and/or inclusive environment for the target non-dominate culture employee.

• an overview of 1 special interest topic associated with the chosen dimension of diversity that is not addressed in other sections of the project

• questions about the dimension of diversity for their learning community to discuss in a scheduled forum

NOTE: Students may share portions of their course project with the professor during the development period for review and comment.

Due: Week 10 (Diversity of Sexual Orientation & Gender Identity – AND - Diversity of Religion)
     Week 11 (Diversity of Mental and Physical Ability – AND - Diversity of Age)

Test Yourself Quizzes
7 Quizzes: Students assess themselves on their knowledge of required reading and audio/video on selected weeks. The short quizzes open for 15 minutes. True false, multiple choice, and multiple answer questions. The quiz is open resource. Students can refer to notes or course material while taking the quiz.

Due: Quizzes are assigned during weeks: 1, 2, 4, 5, 6, 8, and 13.

Grading
Highest number of points a student can earn is 1,000. Points accumulate to determine final percentage grade (percent of 1,000 points.)

Policies and Procedures
The course begins Wednesday of week 1 of the semester. This is an asynchronous course. Each course week opens on Wednesdays.

Message Checking Policies
Messages Sent to Professor’s Canvas Inbox
Unless students receive advance notification, your professor will check her Canvas Inbox by 10:00 am ET. This excludes Sundays and Thanksgiving and Spring Break recess. During all other days, if a student sends a comment or question, the instructor will address the contents of the message within 24 hours.

Messages Sent to Student Canvas Inbox
It is the responsibility of the student to regularly check for incoming course messages. Messages are always sent through the Canvas messaging system. Students will receive a notification when a new message has been sent to his/her Canvas inbox. Forgetting or being unable to check for messages in one’s Canvas inbox is not an excuse.

A weekly message will be uploaded into the announcements area of the course Wednesday mornings by 10 am Eastern Time. Reviewing the contents is a required activity. Weekly Messages present timely information on course activities/assignments and content.

Due Dates

1. It is the student’s responsibility to recognize open, close, first comment and due dates for assignments/assessments. Use the course calendar to identify all assignment due dates and graded assignment return dates. An online version of the calendar is available through clicking on the Calendar tab in the navigation bar (red area to the left of the screen in the course shell.) A hard copy of the calendar is also available through the Calendar page under the Course Essentials module.

2. The 1\textsuperscript{st} comment deadline for forums is Saturday, 11:59 pm. All forums lock 11:59 pm Tuesdays. Learning community forum work cannot be made up.

3. Writing assignments, portfolio parts (there are two) and the course project can be submitted up to 48 hours late for a penalty of 10% of the worth of the assignment. (One letter grade deduction.) These assignments are due Tuesday nights. Students are given until 11:59 Thursday to submit late with the penalty. After that day and time, no assignments will be accepted.

4. Quizzes automatically lock on Tuesdays, 11:59 pm.

Extra Credit Options

Extra credit options are described below.

Course Project Related Extra Credit

Engage in Teamwork When Developing the Course Project

Students who choose to work in a team to develop a course project will receive 20 extra credit points at the time course project grading is released.

Due: Week 13

Things happen. When you don’t have to attend a class session in person, it’s easy to let a situation in your personal or professional life get in the way of online course work. In addition, remember the first rule in computer use – the computer or Internet connection will act up at the most critical time. Because “things happen” it’s a best practice not to wait until the last minute to submit a comment in a forum, complete/upload an assignment or take a quiz. A computer issue is not a valid excuse for late material submission or not engaging in forum discussions.
Academic Integrity

Plagiarism
One form of an academic integrity violation is plagiarism. Students must understand the forms of plagiarism. Students are provided material titled Plagiarism: Identifying & Avoiding in the Course Essentials module and are responsible for the contents of the document.

Plagiarism will not be tolerated in this course. All material taken from another source must offer attribution. No component of a student’s assignment should originate from a past submitted assignment or material downloaded or purchased.

Impact of plagiarism in this course ranges from rewriting the assignment or portion of the assignment; earning limited or no points for the assignment or portion of the assignment. Depending on the extent and form of plagiarism, your professor will contact a Rutgers University Academic Integrity Facilitator. The decision on which action to take is at the discretion of the professor.

Academic Integrity at Rutgers: http://academicintegrity.rutgers.edu/academic-integrity-at-rutgers/

Students with Disabilities
To receive consideration for reasonable accommodations, students with a disability must send their letter of accommodation to me and discuss the needed accommodation(s) as early in the semester as possible. https://ods.rutgers.edu/

Course Expectations

Self-Empowerment

Use of Technical Tools & Problem Solving
It is each student’s responsibility to learn to maneuver around the course and use course tools. Each student has a wealth of information and support to achieve this goal.

Student Resources
Use a “can do” attitude when getting acclimated to the online learning venue. Attitude about achieving success or solving problems is a key resource.

Resources Available in Course:
Refer to the Course Tools page under the Course Essentials module for written information on commonly used course tools. Course Tools page offers written instructions on:

- Updating Your Profile Information
- Assignment Submission Instructions
- Discussion Instructions

A “Help tab” can be accessed through the navigation bar the left of the screen in the course shell.

Resources Available Outside the Course:
Access to the Canvas help desk by using the phone and email information provided on the 1st page of the syllabus as well as the course home page.

Embrace the Opportunities of Online Learning
Assist in Creating and Fostering an Online Community of Learners

Online learning communities are an important part and a benefit of an online course. Interacting with peers increases a sense of connection and belonging. Interaction during the semester reminds students that they are part of a larger group of individuals who are engaged in the same learning experience.

Beyond basic interaction, the development of a community of learners offers students the opportunity to collaborate. Students work together and assist one another while focusing on a common goal – successfully gaining knowledge and skills associated with course topics and learning objectives.

The responsibility of creating an online learning community is shared between the professor and the student. The professor develops a course format, activities, and policies that offer the possibility of a community. However, student involvement within their community is a critical component to the community’s success.

When participating in this course it is an expectation that students will:

- Engage in regular and sustained interaction with peers in forum discussions.
- Communicate clearly, authentically, and maintain a content-oriented focus within the discussions.
- Intellectually challenge peers by offering comments that invite others to share their thoughts and understanding of course material/course topics when engaged in forum work and developing the course project.
- Serve as a reliable teammate when developing the course project.
- Maintain a positive and respectful attitude when interacting with peers. “Flaming” – where students focus on demeaning a peer instead of constructively offering a differing opinion - has point deducting consequences.

Recognize Best Practices and Use Them to Achieve Success

Students are offered specific directions on how to complete each assignment within the course shell as well as within the weekly messages. In addition, specific grading rubrics are published so that students understand how each assignment will be graded. It is expected that students will be attentive to directions and the grading criteria for assignments. Paying attention is in the student’s best interest.

It is the student’s responsibility to review best practices/grading rubrics and ask questions prior to submitting an assignment or engaging in forum work.
