Why study U.S. Labor and Work before the End of Reconstruction?

Reconstruction is just one part of the history James Baldwin wanted America to see. In that sense, the history of our nation remains an inspiration for those who hope to build a freer and more equal America. I am hoping that throughout the semester you will develop a deep appreciation for the continuance of Mr. Baldwin’s words.

How do I get in touch with my instructor?

Use the Inbox messaging tool in Canvas. If you need to meet with me, I will schedule a meeting using Zoom.

If you need accommodations, let me know as soon as possible. You have the right to have your needs met.

How can I be a good citizen in this class?

- You owe it to your peers to submit your work on time, whether participating in a forum or reviewing your peer’s paper. You owe it to yourself, so that you can take full advantage of the points.

What should you be able to know and do by the end of this course? (CORE LEARNING OBJECTIVES)

- Explain the development of some aspect of society or culture over time. (HST)
- Understand different theories about human culture, social identity, economic entities, political systems, and other forms of social organization. (SCL)
- Communicate complex ideas effectively, in standard written English, to a general audience and respond effectively to editorial feedback from peers, instructors, and/or supervisors through successive drafts & revision. (WCr)
- Communicate effectively in modes appropriate to a discipline or area of inquiry; evaluate and critically assess sources and use the conventions of attribution and citation correctly; and analyze and synthesize information and ideas from multiple sources to generate new insights. (WCd)
- Demonstrate an understanding of the perspectives, theories, and concepts in the field of labor and employment relations. (LSER Dept. 1)
- Make an argument using contemporary or historical evidence. (LSER 4)
- Analyze and synthesize information and ideas from multiple sources to generate new insights. (SMLR I)

How will I be evaluated?

You will be evaluated based upon forums, peer reviews, and written assignments.
