Office Hours: Before/after class or by appointment

Note:

This is an abbreviated version of the course syllabus. More detailed information can be found on the Canvas course site. The syllabus content may be modified.

Use of “AI” Strictly Prohibited:

The use of generative artificial intelligence (“AI”) such as ChatGPT, Grammarly, etc. is not permitted on any quiz or assignment in this course and is a violation of the Rutgers University Academic Integrity Policy. All student work submitted will be screened for the unauthorized use of AI. When AI use is detected, I will share the findings with the student to ensure full transparency and to allow the student to be heard. Any assignment flagged for AI use will receive a “0” score.

“No AI” Disclosure (by Professor):

I did not use AI in the creation of the course syllabus, Canvas site, or for any exam or assignment. I also do not use AI for grading or in my communications with students.

Course Description:

Overview of the court system, legal procedures, and remedies; employment-at-will and exceptions; constitutional claims; whistleblower protections; medical/family leave; contracts; torts; drug testing; and fundamental anti-discrimination law.

Grading Criteria:*

- (1) Personal Introduction (5%)
 - (2) Academic Integrity Quiz (5%)
 - (3) Mid-term Exam (45%)
 - (4) Final Exam (45%)
- (*Credit is also earned for in-class contributions)

Attendance:

Students are expected to attend class on a timely and regular basis. Please note that excessive unexcused absences will lower your grade. Unexcused absences in excess of 3 classes may result in a failing grade. Students arriving to class late or departing early must sign-in/out with the TA and will receive partial credit for attending that class.

Course Materials:

There is no textbook. All learning materials are found on Canvas. The Instructor reserves the right to supplement, substitute, and/or modify the listed reading selections.

No Individual Extra Credit:

I do not offer extra credit or “grade adjustments” to individual students upon their request, since this is unfair to other students who do not receive the same opportunity. However, I sometimes will offer an extra credit opportunity to the class as a whole, since that is fair to all students.

Recording:

Students are not permitted to videotape or otherwise record any lecture or course activity, absent prior express consent and authorization by the Instructor.

Academic Integrity:

The conduct of all students is governed by the Rutgers University Academic Integrity Policy. See the Canvas course site for details and for a link to the Policy. Students will take a graded Quiz to demonstrate knowledge of the Policy and the course syllabus.

Disability Accommodations:

Rutgers University welcomes students with disabilities into all of the University’s educational programs. In order to receive consideration for reasonable accommodations, a student with a disability must contact the appropriate disability services office at the campus where they are officially enrolled, participate in an intake interview, and provide supporting documentation. See the Canvas course site for further details and to view other applicable policies.
