I. COURSE DESCRIPTION

This course will examine Latino Workers in the U.S. with a focus on globalization, immigration, and the proliferation of low-wage work.

The topics we will explore include:

- Immigration theories and why people come.
- The history of migration and migration policy in the U.S.
- Current immigration laws in the U.S.
- The impact of globalization.
- How undocumented Latino immigrants manage and survive in the U.S.
- The employment and labor rights of immigrant workers.
- Racialized labor markets, subcontracting and low wage industries.
- Efforts to organize through unions and worker centers to improve wages and working conditions.
- Fixing a broken system.

II. LEARNING OBJECTIVES

Core Curriculum Learning Goal
CCD-1. Analyze the degree to which forms of human differences and stratifications among social groups shape individual and group experiences of, and perspectives on, contemporary issues. Such differences and stratifications may include race, language, religion, ethnicity, country of origin, gender identity, sexual orientation, economic status, abilities, or other social distinctions and their intersections.

Labor Studies & Employment Relations Learning Goal
Analyze the degree to which forms of human difference shape a person’s experience of work (6).
School of Management & Labor Relations Learning Goal
Evaluate the context of workplace issues, public policies, and management decisions. (V)

Instructor’s Goals
- Know and understand fundamental social science, historical, and legal perspectives, theories, and concepts relating to immigration.
- Understand how the global economy and the movement of capital impacts the lives of workers and all but guarantees their movement across borders, legally and illegally.
- Understand how our diverse backgrounds and cultures shape our experiences perspectives, and expectations of work.
- Improve our critical thinking, problem solving and communication skills.

III. EXPECTATIONS

Preparation
We will be covering a lot of ground over the course of the semester so please do complete the reading assignments and summaries and take good notes!

Participation
Class sessions will include short lectures, small group discussions and group exercises. The expectation is that everyone will actively participate in the class.

When participating in discussions use your experience and the information you get from the readings. When you take a position try to back it up with facts, data and examples. And above all, be respectful and listen when others are speaking. You do not have to agree but you must give full attention and consideration to other points of view.

Communications
I will communicate with you via email on a weekly basis. Most of the time I will be providing you with a “Weekly Message” that will include updates, reminders, adjustments and/or reworking of the syllabus (we will be doing some of that from week to week) so please check your Rutgers email account regularly. Feel free to contact me via email or text with questions or concerns about the course. I will do my best to get back to you within 24 hours.

When emailing always include “Latino Workers in the U.S.” in the subject line of your email.

IV. EVALUATION

Final grades will be based on the following:

1. Attendance/Participation (280pts…20pts per class)
2. Weekly Summaries (120pts…10pts per summary)
3. Mid-Term (300pts)
4. Final Exam (300pts)
Attendance/Participation (280pts)
For each class you will have an opportunity to earn a total of 20 points for Attendance and Participation. You get points for coming to class and signing the Attendance Sheet. So, it is vitally important that you come to every class. Failure to sign the Attendance Sheet will result in a loss of attendance and participation points. You can only be excused for an illness, death in the family or other real emergencies. It’s important to note that being excused means that you will have an opportunity to make up the class by completing the summary and answering all the “Questions to Consider” for the class you missed. For excused absences on days when readings and summaries are not assigned, you will need to see me, and we can figure out how best to provide you with an opportunity to earn missed attendance/participation points. And just to clarify, in order to qualify for an excused absence, you need to send me an email prior to the class, or in the case of an emergency, no more than 24 hours after the class.

You earn more points per class based on your contribution to the class discussion. There will be two opportunities to participate—the first opportunity will be in your small group discussions and the second during full class discussions. In order to get full credit for participation you will need to participate in both the small group and full class discussions. I will ask for volunteers to keep track of student participation for each class. For purposes of clarity, if you come to class and only participate in small group discussions, you will earn 16 out of 20 points. If you come to class and participate in both the small group and full class discussion you will get more points and closer to a perfect score for the day (e.g., 18 or higher).

Weekly Summaries (12 @ 10pts per summary = 120pts)
It is vitally important that you come to class ready to contribute to the discussion. With this in mind, everyone will be required to answer two (2) “Questions to Consider” for each weekly reading assignment—including weeks 2-14. Each summary is worth 10 points of your final grade (for a total of 120pts). The “Questions to Consider” will be posted with each week’s reading assignment. They will also serve as small group discussion questions for each week of class. Summaries must be uploaded to Canvas prior to the start of each class. Summaries must be a minimum of 300 words, and you are encouraged to write more. (Note: The total 300-word count will not include repeating the questions you chose to answer, and I will read summaries and keep in touch on an as needed basis.)

Mid-Term and Final Exams (600pts)
The midterm and final will be worth 300pts each and they will be written take-home exams that will cover all course readings, lectures, discussion questions, films, documentaries, group exercises, etc. You will have one week to complete the mid-term and one week to complete the final exam. It’s important to note that for both exams, you will only be able to use the assigned readings. You will not be allowed to use any outside sources! I will make this point when we get to the Mid-Term and again for the final.

V. Rutgers COVID-19 Protocols
The health and safety of everyone who comes to Rutgers is a shared responsibility. Following these community safety practices will help protect you and others.
Effective October 1, 2022: Although they will continue to be required in all clinical settings, face coverings are no longer required in most indoor spaces at Rutgers. Where masks are optional, students who prefer to wear them are encouraged to do so, and the university fully respects that personal decision. Further, as the pandemic remains fluid, the university is prepared to revisit this change in protocol should future public health conditions warrant.

As Rutgers COVID-19 protocols continue to evolve, using common sense and doing your part in our shared responsibilities continues to be essential. This includes staying home while sick, whether for COVID-19 or not.

VI. RU LEARNING CENTERS
“Rutgers is committed to your success and offers free academic services to all students. The Learning Centers provide tutoring, study groups, and review sessions for your courses. They also host workshops and provide individual academic coaching to help you further develop your study strategies and self-management skills. To learn more about how the LCs can help you succeed, visit rlc.rutgers.edu.”

VII. DISABILITY STATEMENT
This course is open to all students who meet the academic requirement for participation. Any student who has a need for accommodation based on the impact of disability should refer to the Rutgers Office of Disability Services and then contact the instructor privately to discuss the specific situation as soon as possible.

VIII. STATEMENT OF ACADEMIC FREEDOM
Freedom to teach and freedom to learn are inseparable facets of academic freedom. This class will introduce an array of sometimes conflicting ideas and interpretations of U.S. history, immigration policy, etc. and all who partake in the course should feel encouraged to express their views in an open, civic forum.

IX. COURSE READINGS
All materials for this course will be available on Canvas.
