Making Career Decisions that count: A practical guide by D.A. Luzzo & L.E Severy- published by Pearson Education (2009)

All required class materials will be posted on Canvas at: https://canvas.rutgers.edu

Course Objectives:
This course will provide undergraduate level students an overview of career management topics including individuals’ career self-concept, the various stages of career development, career decision making, changing employment reality, career phases and paths. In addition, we will discover various career development theories, explore tools and assessments that can help you understand yourself, your interest, values and skills and how your experiences so far can help in identifying your next career move, how to prepare for the job market, understand the job search process, and maximize your effectiveness in career development. Basic personal career enhancing skills will also be addressed including resume writing, interviewing skills, work-life balance, and company cultures. As a core class within the Human Resource Management (HRM) major, this course is relevant as HR managers are often placed in the role of advising others with respect to their careers while simultaneously managing their own. This course will offer an introduction to the issues relevant for students’ current and future career management.

Examinations:
There will be one non-cumulative examination as noted on the course schedule. Make-up policy: An examination grade of “0” will be assigned to any student who does not have an excused absence as defined on the syllabus. Students with different learning abilities and needs should present a statement to that effect with appropriate documentation as early in the semester as possible, but certainly prior to the first midterm examination. A makeup exam will be held at a time convenient to the instructor when all students needing to take the makeup can be present. An examination cancelled by the instructor will be held at the next regularly scheduled class period.

SMLR Learning Objectives:
This course is designed to help students attain the following SMLR learning objectives:

IV) Theoretical Perspectives - Demonstrate an understanding of relevant theories and apply them given the background context of a particular work situation.
- Demonstrate an understanding of the practical perspectives, theories and concepts in their field of study
- Evaluate and apply theories from social science disciplines to workplace issues

VII) Professional Development – Demonstrate an ability to interact with and influence others in a professional manner, and to effectively present ideas and recommendations
- Develop effective presentation skills appropriate for different settings and audiences
- Develop career management skills to navigate one’s career
- Develop capabilities to work and lead in a multicultural and diverse environment
- Work productively in teams, in social networks, and on an individual basis
- Develop cultural agility competencies
- Demonstrate lifelong personal & professional development skills

Assignments:
Eight assignments are to be submitted on CANVAS under the related “Assignments” tab on the date indicated on the syllabus, unless stated otherwise. All assignments are worth either 5 or 10 points. Ensure you answer all parts of the assignment. Each assignment must be typed and well written and will be graded on a scale from 0 to 10 points (or 0 to 5 for assignment #6).

Late assignments will be automatically penalized if arrangements are not made in advance for late turn-in or without a valid excused absence. Assignments handed in late without a valid excuse will be deducted 20% within 1 week late and then a “0” will be recorded. THIS POLICY WILL BE STRICTLY ENFORCED. Also, if you have grading related question pls ensure you address your grading related questions within two weeks of the returned graded assignment date. I will not discuss grades after 2 weeks of return of graded assignments.

In-Class Participation:
This is an interactive class and participation is EXPECTED. Students can learn a tremendous amount from each other - you should feel free (and be prepared) to provide your comments, ask thoughtful questions, and share your own experiences with the class. Moreover, active engagement with course ideas and concepts (i.e., thinking about how they apply and why, generating questions or examples) helps develop well-rounded, reasoned judgments. Finally, research shows that students learn more when they are engaged and participate actively. For these reasons, active participation is an important class component.

Excused Absence:
Excused absences include illness (verified by a note from a doctor)- please report inability to attend BEFORE class starts unless of course it is a medical emergency-; inclement weather only when the Rutgers Information Service (848-932-INFO) indicates that weather is disruptive to our online education; religious holidays, or when the instructor emails the class announcing class is suspended.

Grading:
- Assignments: 70% (70 points)
- Final Exam: 20% (20 points)
- Participation and attendance: 10% (10 points)

Total: 100% (100 points)

Course Grading:
- A: 100–90
- B+: 89 – 85
- B: 84 – 80
- C+: 79 – 75
- C: 74 – 70
- D: 69 – 60
- F: < 59

Extra Credit:
An opportunity to earn extra credit will be available for anyone who chooses to take advantage of it, provided that all assignments have been submitted and you have not missed taking either the midterm exam or submitting the final paper. It is each student’s choice to avail her/himself of this opportunity to raise one’s grade. Students should be checking their accumulated points through Sakai periodically throughout the semester to determine if taking advantage of extra credit assignments is something they wish to undertake. Designed extra credit assignment will earn 3 points. Additional extra credit offerings may be announced in class and will earn up to 1 point each.
