The Store Manager In Training (SMIT) role gives students like you a foundation of management skills as well as an understanding of inventory, staff development, and what it means to work with purpose.

Learn about specific aspects of retail management including customer service leadership; policy implementation; sales and inventory management; employee staffing, training and development; sales building and merchandising; and financial management.

DETAILS:

Thursday April 30th
1:30-2:30 PM

See handshake for more information

For more information: smlrcareerservices@smlr.rutgers.edu