Course Objective
This course offers students the opportunity to:

- Recognize individual, societal and organizational dynamics related to 21st century workplace diversity and inclusion.
- Increase knowledge about the variety of human difference and the need to promote social justice and inclusion for both the US and global workforce.
- Develop skills that reflect respect for human difference and support inclusion.

Student Competencies
At the conclusion of the course it is expected that students will be able to:

- Apply critical thinking skills to complex individual/societal/organizational/global workforce issues associated with human diversity and inclusion.
- Communicate new perspectives on social justice, valuing human diversity and developing inclusive workplaces.
- Utilize skills and best practices gained to assist in creating an inclusive workplace environment.

Association with SAS Objectives
This course relates to the overall objectives of a liberal arts education in the area of 21st century challenges. A Rutgers University SAS graduate will be able to:

- Analyze the degree to which forms of human difference shape a person’s experiences of and perspectives on the world.
- Analyze issues of social justice across local and global contexts.

Course Requirements

The course involves:

Reading, Audio/Video Assignments

Reading
Students read textbook chapters, journal articles and reports.
All required reading (book chapters, journal articles and reports) are already uploaded into the course shell or a link is available to course material that exists through the Internet.

Audio/Visual
Students are required to watch instructor generated video presentations as well as watch videos and listen to audio presentations by national diversity and inclusion experts. All audio and video material is provided through links within the course shell.

Writing Assignments

Peer Survey: Personal Diversity Perspectives
The Peer Introduction Survey is the initial writing assignment. Students are required to engage in self reflection and critical thinking on introductory material on prevalent diversity and inclusion related myths prior to completing this assignment. The assignment is then shared with learning community members and discussed in the Introduction Forum.

Due date: Week 3

Diversity & Inclusion Portfolio
The portfolio is a semester long assignment that focus on personal and professional growth in relation to required reading and audio/visual assignments. Portfolio components address a variety of topic areas of the course.

Grading criteria: reflection (45%); content (45%); organization & mechanics (10%)
Assessment involves whether or not the student has:
1. grasped the content of required reading and audio/visual assignments.
2. made personal meaning and/or developed new perspectives on course topics.
3. engaged in critical thinking by considering course material in relation to current events, past experiences and opportunities for professional growth.

Portfolio Content:
Part A: The Basics (Worth 125 points)
Activity
#1 What Organizations Are Communicating About Diversity and Inclusion
#2 Subconscious Stereotypes and Prejudices
#3 Diversity, Exclusion and Inclusion in the News

Part B: Diversity & Inclusion Leadership Skills (Worth 100 Points)
Activity
#4 Best Practices in Valuing Human Differences
#5 Your Diversity Story
#6 Diversity & Inclusion Leadership Plan

Due dates:
Part A – week 6
Part B - week 14

Students may share portions of their portfolio with the instructor anytime during the semester for review and comment.

Forums
There are 4 forums assigned in this course. Each forum is 1 week in length.
Introduction Forum
Topic: Identity, Culture, Values, Difference
Human Difference and Workplace Issues Series

Forum 1
Topic: Social Class & Religious Diversity

Forum 2
Topic: Age & Physical/Mental Abilities

Forum 3
Topic: Sexual Orientation & Physical Appearance

Assessment involves the extent to which a standard of excellence has been reached in three grading categories: content (50%), participation (45%), and context/mechanics (5%).

Due Date: Forums open on Thursdays and close 11:59 pm Tuesday evenings. A first comment in each area of a forum is required by 11:59 pm Sunday the week a forum is open. When the first comment deadline is missed more than 50% of participation points will be deducted from a student's total forum score. Forum work cannot be made up.

Course Project

Dimension of Diversity Presentation

Students choose, research and create a PowerPoint presentation on one of five dimensions of diversity. Students follow a template to present content in the following areas:

- Introduction
  - What I Didn’t Know, What You Shouldn’t Miss

- Section I – US Historical Perspectives
  - Societal Stereotypes, US Laws & Accepted Policies, Advocacy Groups

- Section II – Global Perspectives
  - International Perspectives on Dimension – General or Specific Region/Country
  - Exclusion & Discrimination Overview

- Section III - In Today’s Workplace
  - What Do Employees Desire and Need?

- Section IV – Interesting Issue about this Dimension
  - Special Topic Associated with Dimension – Overview
  - Thoughts in Relation to the Topic

- Bibliography
  - Resources Used to Develop the Presentation

- Recommended Discussion Points
  - Questions for Our Learning Community

Students select from the following dimension options to develop their course project: religious diversity, dimension of age, mental and physical abilities, sexual orientation, and physical appearance.

Due Date: Projects are due during Unit II:
- religious diversity – week 8
- age – and - mental and physical abilities – week 9
- sexual orientation and gender identity - and –physical appearance week 10
Course Orientation Quiz and Final Exam

IMPORTANT: Course Orientation Quiz and Exam Use Proctortrack

The course orientation quiz and the final exam are given using Proctortrack for student verification and monitoring. Please see information about Proctortrack under the Policies and Procedures section of the syllabus as well as the Quiz and Exam homepage in the course shell. Students must be able to use Proctortrack to complete the course orientation quiz and the final exam. If a student can’t use Proctortrack, the student can’t complete the assessments. No alternative is offered.

Course Orientation Quiz

Understanding of the following material will be assessed in the course orientation quiz.

Overall course objectives; the syllabus, Critical Tips for Successful Online Learning document, instructor course overview video and plagiarism material.

The quiz is open book. Students can refer to material while taking the quiz.

Due Date: Check course calendar. The course orientation quiz can be completed beginning Friday, September 4 – through - 11:59 pm, September 8.

Comprehensive Final

Knowledge of substantial key concepts presented in required reading, video, and weekly messages will be assessed through a final exam. The final exam uses a test pool. No two final exams will be the same.

Due Date: Check course calendar. Final exam can be completed between Wednesday, December 9 and Friday, 11:59 pm December 11. Students must complete exam by the close date/time of exam. No exceptions.

While the exam will be open during a reading day, students have the opportunity to complete the final exam on December 9 or 10, the two last days of the regular semester.

Correct answers with explanations (for t/f and multiple choice questions) will be available the evening of Monday, December 14.

Grading

A final grade is based on a 1000 point system. Each assignment is worth a specific number of points. Total points accumulated determines final course grade.

Class Sessions
1. The course week begins on WEDNESDAYS.
   - Students are expected to enter the course for the first time the first day of the semester, (Tuesday) September 1.
   - The last day students will be expected to log into the course prior to final grades being posted is Friday, December 11 (last day final exam is open.)

2. A weekly message will be sent to each student as well as uploaded into the course weekly messages file in document sharing by 10 am WEDNESDAY. Information about content or assignment procedure is available within the weekly message.

3. Each course week is 7 days in length with the exception of week 14. Students may enter the course and engage in coursework at any time 24 hours a day, 7 days a week.

Due Dates
1. The due date for each assignment is also clearly noted on the course calendar.
   - September
   - October
     - Portfolio Part A 10/06; Religion course projects 10/27
   - November

2. The 1st comment deadline for forums is Sunday, 11:59 pm. All forums lock 11:59 pm Tuesdays. Forum work cannot be made up.

3. Portfolio and Course Project assignments can be submitted up to 24 hours late for a penalty of 10% of the worth of the assignment. (One letter grade deduction.) Students are given until 11:59 Wednesday to submit late – after that day and time, no assignments will be accepted. No exceptions.

4. Students have three days to complete the final exam. The exam must be taken between Wednesday, December 9 and Friday, December 11. The final exam will automatically lock at 11:59 pm, Friday, December 11. No makeup exam. No exceptions.
Academic Integrity

Plagiarism

One form of an academic integrity violation is plagiarism. Students must understand the forms of plagiarism. Students are provided material titled Plagiarism: Identifying & Avoiding on the course homepage and are responsible for the contents of the document. Some facts are assessed as part of the Course Orientation quiz.

Plagiarism will not be tolerated in this course. All material taken from another source must offer proper attribution. No component of a student’s writing assignment should originate from a past submitted assignment or material downloaded or purchased.

Impact of plagiarism in this course ranges from rewriting the assignment - to – earning no points for the assignment. Depending on the extent and form of plagiarism, the situation will be reported to Rutgers University.

Exam Cheating

Engaging in cheating when completing a course exam is a serious academic integrity violation. The student who is registered for the course must be the student who completes his/her assessments. Completing exams with other classmates and/or calling/emailing peers while taking course assessments will not be tolerated.

See below section on use of Proctortrack in this course. In addition, students should be aware that all testing material, both point bearing (Course Orientation quiz and Final exam) as well as extra credit (Test Yourself at Midterm) assessments are developed using a large test bank. No two tests are the same.

The final exam in this course is open book. Students are allowed to access material to assist them when completing the final.

When a student is caught cheating, no points will be earned for the assessment. Depending on the severity of the cheating violation, the situation will be reported to Rutgers University.

Use of Proctortrack

The Course Orientation quiz and the Final exam use Proctortrack for 1) verification of student identity and 2) for monitoring student activities while completing the quiz/exam. Proctortrack videotapes student identification activities prior to and monitors student behavior during the exam period. Instructors review all behaviors which have been flagged as suspicious.

Students must own a video camera associated with their laptop or PC to use Proctortrack. Specific instructions regarding the use of Proctortrack are offered on the Quiz and Exam homepage in the course.
Students with Disabilities
To receive consideration for reasonable accommodations, students with a disability must send their letter of accommodation to me and discuss the needed accommodation(s) as early in the semester as possible. For more information regarding the process of applying for a letter of accommodation: https://ods.rutgers.edu/students/documentation-guidelines. https://ods.rutgers.edu/students/registration-form.

Extra Credit Options
There are two types of extra credit options. These options are available to all students and are explained below. No other extra credit is available for individual students.

Engage in Teamwork When Developing the Course Project
Students who choose to work in a team to develop a course project will receive 15 extra credit points at the time of course project grading.

Test Your Knowledge Extra Credit Quizzes
At three intervals throughout the semester students will be encouraged to engage in an extra credit quiz that helps them prepare for the final exam. The quiz questions will pertain to content associated with certain weeks. Extra credit quizzes are worth between 15 – 20 points.

Quiz #1: Addresses week 1 – 4 material. Open: September 25 – Close 29.
Quiz #2: Addresses week 5 – 8 material. Open: October 23 – Close 27.
Quiz #3: Addresses week 9 - 11 material. Open: November 13 – Close 17.

Checking Email
Instructor’s Email Checking Policy
Unless you receive advance notification, I will check my email by 10:00 am Eastern Time every workday. If you send a comment or question, you’ll receive a response within 24 hours. This policy excludes Saturday/Sunday and spring break.

Students Email Checking Policy
It is the responsibility of the student to check for incoming course related messages at least 2 times a week. Once a week – on Wednesday mornings - I will send each student a weekly message which should be reviewed as soon as possible. In addition, students will receive messages from me regarding a variety of topics throughout the semester. Forgetting or being unable to check your email is not an excuse! Email messages are ALWAYS sent to the student’s default email address for the course. If you do not know your default email address, contact your instructor.

Course Expectations

Self-Empowerment
Use of Technical Tools & Problem Solving
It is each student’s responsibility to learn to maneuver around the course and use course tools. Each student has a wealth of information and support to achieve this goal.

Student Resources

- Use a “can do” attitude when getting acclimated to the online learning venue. Attitude about achieving success or solving problems is a key resource..

Resources available in course:

- The Course Tools page – provides written information and instructions that address all aspects of technical performance within this course.

- Videos – Offer visual demonstrations of how to use each course tool (example: document sharing, dropbox and changing default email address). Links to videos are located on the Course Tools page.
• First Steps Instructions – Basic and specific instructions and links are provided for students to identify how and where course information is organized. Upon entering the course, follow all steps presented to become acclimated to the location of key pieces of information and feel comfortable entering all areas of the course shell.

Resources available outside the course:
A listing of contacts to assist with technical questions has been provided for you on the 1st page of the syllabus.

Embrace the Opportunities of Online Learning
Online courses are different than on-the-ground courses. Beyond enjoying the convenience in not having to commute to class, choose to become empowered by the other benefits of online learning. Well designed and facilitated, online courses:

- feature learner-centered/self-directed learning. Self-directed learning requires more involvement from the student. More involvement increases the likelihood of retention.

- are assignment based. This difference requires students to continually do something with the topics being addressed in a course. Students are motivated through assignments to make a personal connection with the material.

- expand resources for study beyond the recourses in the course shell. Students are encouraged to explore a wide variety of Internet based sources of information that addresses course topics.

- foster student-to-student interaction and support opportunities that can serve as high quality learning opportunities.

- offer time for students to consider concepts and skills being addressed beyond the period one would be present in an on-the-ground classroom.

- support one-on-one learning through ongoing interaction with the instructor. Your instructor is readily available to answer questions and/or discuss course content and assignments.

Recognize Best Practices and Use Them to Achieve Success
Students are offered specific directions on how to complete each assignment within the course shell as well as within the weekly messages. In addition, specific grading rubrics are published so that students understand exactly how each assignment will be graded. It is expected that students will be attentive to directions and the grading criteria for assignments.

Course Content and Assignments

Reading/audio/video material listed below represents core material for the semester. Recommended and/or additional required material may be integrated into a week’s material. Refer to pages associated with each week in the course shell for a complete listing of materials.
