Course Description:

This course will examine, discuss and practice interviewing skills from the perspective of the candidate/interviewee and management/interviewer. Lectures, reading materials and videos will be used to facilitate understanding. Group interactive discussion and role-playing will be an integral part of the learning content and practicum.

Expectations and Learning Objectives:

Students, upon successfully concluding this course, will have the basic ability to:

- Prepare for an interview
- Partake in and know how to behave/respond during an interview
- Conduct an interview
- Prepare effective resumes

Course Materials:

None, all materials will be provided.

Cited Resources & Recommended Reading Material:

- Holmes, David (2014). The Smart Guide to the Perfect Job Interview. Norman, OK: Smart Guide Publications, Inc.
- Leanne, Shelly (2004). How to Interview Like a Top MBA: Job Winning Strategies from Headhunters, Fortune 100 Recruiters and Career Counselors. New York, NY: McGraw-Hill Companies, Inc.

Course Policies & Performance Expectations:

This course is five (5) classes in total duration; which equates to imperative attendance and participation. Active participation is heavily encouraged, as group discussions as well as role-playing exercises are extremely important in the evaluation of student performance. The use of electronic devices are prohibited during class; unless otherwise permitted for class participation purposes. Reading materials will be provided; questions derived from reading materials may be found on the final exam.
