Course Overview

This course will study the historical, legal and practical issues of strike, stoppages, lockouts and boycotts in a collectively bargained as well as non-union environment. We will discuss basic labor law and labor relations concepts. We will study the origin of strikes, the different kinds of strikes as well as a brief overview of the legalities of strikes and lockouts. We will study the decision making process to engage in economic action designed to pressure the other side as well as the conduct, resolution and consequences of such action. We will consider alternatives to strikes. We will compare and contrast rights in the public and private employment sectors as well as strikes in the U.S. and overseas with regard to the goals and conduct. We will study famous strikes in history and the lessons learned. We will learn about other forms of economic action such as secondary boycotts, picketing, consumer boycotts and corporate campaigns. We will also consider the impact of such action on the public and the media coverage of strikes.

Course Requirements

- Students are required to attend all sessions of the course.
- All reading assignments should be completed before class since class participation is an essential element of the course. All reading assignments will either be handed out in class or posted in Sakai. No textbooks need to be purchased.
