INTRODUCTION TO LABOR STUDIES AND EMPLOYMENT RELATIONS
Labor Studies 37:575:100 online: Section 92 Draft subject to change

Spring 2016
Professors Maureen Sheridan and Paula B. Voos

Contact information for Professor Sheridan:
Cell phone: 609-571-7207. Email is maureensheridan@ymail.com
Appointments can be arranged in advance. She is also available via Google+ hangout or Skype.

Contact information for Professor Voos:
Office phone: 848-932-1748. Cell phone: 732-261-5958. She is available in her office (140 Labor Education Center) most mornings but its best to call to be sure. Professor Voos prefers to answer substantive questions by phone, rather than email; her email is pbvoos@work.rutgers.edu Please copy both professors when you email about the course. That way one of us can be sure to get back to you.

Schedule: The weeks in the course begin on Monday and end on Sunday evening at 11:59 p.m. You often will have things due on either Thursday evening or Sunday evening, just like any course that meets twice a week. The schedule and the assignments are subject to change.

This is an online course that is largely asynchronous. But you do need to be able to schedule an online activity on the following days/times, so plan your schedule accordingly:

- Participation on one Mon. or Wed. evening either online or in person to “negotiate the syllabus” – this is an exercise designed to make you familiar with how the negotiating room audio software works and to insure you have suitable computer equipment for the bargaining exercise that takes place later in the course if you choose to do it online. Alternatively, you may choose to do both this (and the later collective bargaining exercise) in person in New Brunswick. You must do both exercises the same way – either ONLINE or IN PERSON. That way we can be sure you have the right equipment (a headset with a microphone) and your computer works with the Virtual World software.

  You will need to give us at least a first and second choice. We’d really appreciate more because we need teams of somewhat even numbers.

  Wed. Feb 3 IN PERSON from 5-7 p.m.
  Wed. Feb. 3 ONLINE from 7-9 p.m.
  Mon. Feb. 8 ONLINE from 6-8 p.m.
  Mon. Feb. 8 IN PERSON from 8-10 p.m.

- Participation in a collective bargaining exercise as a member of a union or management team.

  Mon. April 11 7-10p.m. ONLINE, or
  Mon. April 11 7-10p.m. IN PERSON
  Wed. April 13 7-10p.m. ONLINE, or
  Wed. April 13 7:10p.m. IN PERSON
This course addresses the Social Analysis (SCL) Learning Objectives of the CORE:

h. Understand the bases and development of human and societal endeavors across time and place.
m. Understand different theories about human culture, social identity, economic entities, political systems, and other forms of social organization.
n. Apply concepts about human and social behavior to particular questions or situations.

Your progress toward understanding how work, workers, and forms of worker organization fit into these social science goals will be assessed through before/after test items and rubrics applied to written assignments.

Equipment needed for online negotiations: USB Headset with a microphone (other types don’t work well); please do not attempt to use an “open” microphone built into a personal computer because it leads to feedback that will bother other students. You also need a personal computer with broadband connection. An I-pad, other tablet, Chromebook or a smart-phone will not be sufficient. Rutgers computing centers do not allow the students to use them for the two online exercises because speaking bothers other users. Remember, you can do the exercises in person instead of getting this equipment.

Evaluation (Subject to change via the “negotiate the syllabus” exercise):
For purposes of grading, there are five components of the course:

- Introductory exercises (Personal information sheet; pre-test participation; negotiate the syllabus exercise participation) (3%)
- Negotiate the syllabus exercise (4%)
- 3 Threaded Discussions (Forums) at 10% each (30%)
- Op. Ed. Writing assignment (8%)
- Rights check and union knowledge check at 1% each (2%)
- Bargaining exercise (8%)
- 3 Quizzes at 12% each (36%)
- One page take-home final (9%)

The professors reserve the right to determine the “cutoffs” between particular grades at the end of the semester. They often start B+, for instance, at 88 points but that is subject to change each semester.

Unit I. The Situation Working People Face Today (Jan. 19 – Feb. 21)

Week 1: Introduction (Jan. 19-24)
- Explore what the course is about and make note of what is required of you.
- Learn how to use Pearson E-college and locate readings & other online resources. There are excellent instructional videos online about the use of the e-college system.
- Post information about yourself for the instructor and other students you will be working with (worth 0.5% of your grade)
- Take the Pre-test. Your score does not affect your grade but it is important to be sure how your computer will interact with the exam software to prevent later problems. (worth
1% of your grade. So please use the computer you will later use on Sunday to take exams.

Read: Sweet & Meiksins, Chapter 1

Assignment for Week 1: Interview at least one parent or grandparent about your family’s work history (preferably more). You do not need to write anything about the interview. It will form the basis of an online discussion next week.

Also if you do not have a computer headset with an attached microphone and are participating in the online exercises (rather than the in person ones), please get it this week. A USB connection is best. This equipment is needed to reduce “feedback” in group discussions online.

Week 2: Work and Our Lives (Jan. 25-31)

- You and your family’s history of work
- Intergenerational economic mobility and immobility
- Intergenerational transmission of resources (types of economic and social capital)

Read:
Paul Krugman, Chapter 1, End This Depression Now. New York: WW Norton, 2012, and

The Pew Charitable Trust, “A Third of Americans Now Say They Are in the Lower Classes” and watch the accompanying short video on absolute vs. relative income mobility (link in the online course shell).

Gene Demby, “Young People Want Equality but Struggle to Discuss Bias,” National Public Radio, 5/15/14 (link in the online course shell).

Due week 2: Participate in Forum 1: You need to post at least once by Thursday evening, and then a second time by Sunday evening. Both quantity and quality count so you may want to post beyond this minimum.

Week 3: Corporations & Work in the “New Economy” (Feb. 1-7)

- Corporations – structure, power, and rights
- Old and new forms of work organization
- The rise of contingent work

Read: Sweet & Meiksins, Chapter 2, and Watch: 4 Video excerpts from The Corporation on You-tube.

PBS video, “A Job at Fords” from the series, The Great Depression

Due in Week 3: Take part in the “negotiate the syllabus exercise” this week at your scheduled time. Instructions will be sent in the weekly message for this week and also posted in the Announcement area.

Week 4: Social Class in the U.S. (Feb 8-14)
- Class and opportunity in the U.S.
- Class and social mobility
- Relationship between wealth and power
- Has class faded in American culture?

Read: NYTimes website on Social Class:
http://www.nytimes.com/pages/national/class/

Be sure to read on this site:
(1) the Overview article, “Shadowy Lines that Still Divide” and
(2) Tamar Lewin “Up from the Holler” (Click on Day 3) and
(3) David Leonhardt “The College Dropout Boom” (Click on Day 5) and
(4) at least two other articles/blogs from the site.
(5) Also read Bob Herbert’s op. ed. “Mobility Myth” (Click under Readers Opinions).
(6) You should also be sure to do the interactive exercise on the NYTimes site using your family of social origin.

Watch:
Professor Francis Ryan, Rutgers Labor Studies & Employment Relations Dept. speak about the history of the ideal of social mobility in the U.S. and the reality today.

Kate Pickett, Big Think Interview, “Why Inequality is Bad for Your Health” http://bigthink.com/katepickett. The rest is optional viewing.

Due in week 4 – Nothing this week. However, you should start working on the assignment that is due on Thursday next week:
Assignment: Write a 500 word Op-Ed. on social class and inequality. You can choose any one of the following three suggestions for a central theme (Op-Eds advocate an idea or a public policy).

(a) “Social class is real in the United States.” These Op-Eds are typically built around the personal experience of the author, their family, and/or people they know. See the New York Times website on social class for several examples.

(b) “Widening economic inequality is a big problem in the United States.” This type of Op-Ed needs to be built on facts (the Domhoff reading in week 5 has many) but must be written in a way that is readable, convincing, and often illustrated by either personal experience or that of others.

(c) “We should reduce economic inequality in the United States by passing the following law.” Here you would need to choose a public policy that would help reduce economic inequality and advocate convincingly for its effectiveness. Explain why it would reduce this current problem.

An Op-Ed is an opinion piece (named such because it is usually placed "opposite the editorials" in a publication) designed to offer an alternate position to what the media provides. Typically, an op-ed is written by an expert in a subject area or in industry. Generally, the goal of an op-ed is to educate the public on an issue. While an op-ed is largely an "opinion" piece, it must be based in fact and should be persuasive in style rather than a simple report. Take the time to edit, re-edit and then re-edit again. A clean, concise and compelling op-ed is your goal.

Week 5: Economic Inequality Today (Feb. 15-21)
- Class, race, and gender inequality
- Does the U.S. have a power pyramid?
- Health and other effects of income inequality

Read:
Sweet & Meiksins, Chapter 3, and
