Spring 2018
Professors John Castella and Paula B. Voos

Contact information for Professor Voos:
Office phone: 848-932-1748. Cell phone: 732-261-5958. She is available in her office (140 Labor Education Center) most mornings but its best to call to be sure. Professor Voos prefers to answer substantive questions by phone, rather than email; her email is pbvoos@SMLR.rutgers.edu; she can also be reached by the email in the internal Canvas system.
Please copy all professors when you email about the course. That way one of us can be sure to get back to you.

Contact information for Professor Castella:
Email- john.castella@rutgers.edu. Emailing Professor Castella is the preferred way to communicate. However, if it is substantive, please call him.
Cell phone: 646-584-3172. If necessary, it is best to reach Professor Castella on his cell phone in the morning after 8am. If you choose to text, make sure you put your name in the body of the text as well.

Schedule: The weeks in the course begin on Monday and end on Sunday evening at 11:59 p.m. You often will have things due on either Thursday evening or Sunday evening, just like any course that meets twice a week. The schedule and the assignments are subject to change.
This is an online course that is largely asynchronous. All students will need to schedule one synchronous activity, “Negotiate the Syllabus,” early in the term, so plan your schedule accordingly.

You will then have a CHOICE as to doing either:

1) a team-based collective bargaining exercise that requires planning with the team, and then engaging with them in either an in-person or an online bargaining session with the opposing union or management team, or

2) an individual paper of about 5 pages, after visiting one of a number of labor related museums. This might be a better choice if your personal life or work schedule keeps you from being able to work well with a group or bargain at an agreed on time.

The collective bargaining exercise is probably more fun, but students have also found the museum visits to be worthwhile.

- First synchronous activity (required of all): Participation either online or in person to “negotiate the syllabus” – this is an exercise designed to make you familiar with how Big Blue Button works and to insure you have suitable computer equipment for the bargaining exercise that takes place later in the course if you choose to do it online. Alternatively, you may choose to do both this (and the later collective bargaining exercise) in person in New Brunswick at the Labor Education Center. You can only do the CB Exercise online if you do the Negotiate the Syllabus online successfully.
You will need to give us at least a first, second and third choice of times. We’d really appreciate more because we have to schedule many students in similar sized groups!

Wed. Jan 31 IN PERSON from 2-4 p.m. at the Labor Ed Center, New Brunswick
Wed. Jan 31 ONLINE from 7-9 p.m.

Th. Feb 1 IN PERSON from 2-4 at the Labor Ed Center, New Brunswick
Th. Feb 1 ONLINE from 7-9 p.m

Sat. Feb 3 ONLINE from 10 a.m.- noon.
Sat. Feb 3 ONLINE from noon-2p.m.
Sat. Feb 3 IN PERSON from 3-5 p.m. at the Labor Ed Center, New Brunswick
Sat. Feb 3 ONLINE from 7-9 p.m.

Sun. Feb. 4 ONLINE from 9-11a.m.
Sun. Feb. 4 IN PERSON from 12-2p.m. at the Labor Ed Center, New Brunswick
Sun. Feb. 4 ONLINE from 3-5p.m.

Note: Feb. 4 is Super-bowl Sunday

- Choice synchronous activity (do either this or do the Museum visit and paper): Participation in a collective bargaining exercise as a member of a union or management team. Your union or management team should hold an initial meeting one week before the following negotiation dates and work together over the course of the preceding week:

Wed. April 11 IN PERSON from 1:00-4:00pm

Sat. April 14 ONLINE from 10:00a.m.-1:00p.m.
Sat. April 14 IN PERSON from 2:00-5:00 p.m.
Sat. April 14 ONLINE from 7:00p.m.-10:00p.m.

Sunday April 15 ONLINE from 10:00a.m.-1:00p.m.
Sunday April 15 IN PERSON from 2:00-5:00p.m.

We would truly appreciate it if you could give us a choice of several times because we realize some students will be limited to one particular schedule and we need to have good teams for all. We may drop individual times if there are not enough students for two good teams at those times.

Equipment needed for online bargaining: USB Headset with a microphone for a Windows computer (other types don’t work well); please do not attempt to use an “open” microphone built into a personal computer because it leads to feedback that will bother other students. Apple earbuds are needed for Macintosh computers.

You also need your own personal computer with broadband connection. An iPad, Chromebook, other tablet, or a smart-phone will not be sufficient and the Rutgers computing centers do not allow students to do the exercise because it involves talking that disturbs others.

Learning Objectives for this course follow. The student is able to:

Core Curriculum: SCL

- Understand different theories about human culture, social identity, economic entities, political systems and other forms of social organization. (Goal m).
- Employ tools of social scientific reasoning to study particular questions or situations, using appropriate assumptions, methods, evidence, and arguments. (Goal n).

School of Management and Labor Relations:

- Demonstrate an understanding of relevant theories and apply them given the background context of a particular work situation. (Goal IV)
- Demonstrate an understanding of how to apply knowledge necessary for effective work performance. (Goal VI)

Labor Studies and Employment Relations Department:

- Demonstrate an understanding of the perspectives, theories and concepts in the field of labor and employment relations. (Goal 1).
- Apply those concepts, and substantive institutional knowledge, to understanding contemporary developments related to work. (Goal 2).

Additional course objective from the instructors:

- Students will be able to apply facts and concepts from the course to argue convincingly against common contemporary fallacies related to employment relations.

Text: Stephen Sweet and Peter Meiksins. Changing Contours of Work: Jobs and Opportunities in the New Economy. 3rd Edition. Sage, 2017. (Please note: the second and third editions are similar, although the latter is more up to date. The first is very different – do not use it).

Evaluation (Subject to change via the “negotiate the syllabus” exercise):

For purposes of grading, there are multiple components of the course:

- Introductory exercises (Personal information sheet; pre-test participation) (3%)
- Negotiate the syllabus exercise (4%)
- 3 Threaded Discussions (Forums) at 10% each (30%)
- Op. Ed. Writing assignment (8%)
- Rights check and union knowledge check at 1% each (2%)
- Bargaining exercise or museum paper (8%)
- 3 Quizzes at 12% each (36%)
- One page take-home final (9%)
The professors reserve the right to determine the division between B and B+ etc., although in many years B+ starts at an overall average of 88. That cutoff is subject to change each semester.

Unit I. The Situation Working People Face Today (Jan. 16 – Feb. 18)

Week 1: Introduction (Jan. 16-21)

- Explore what the course is about and make note of what is required of you.
- Learn how to use Canvas and locate readings & other online resources. There are excellent instructional videos online about the use of the system.
- Post information about yourself for the instructor and other students you will be working with (worth 0.5% of your grade)
- Take the Pre-test. Your score does not affect your grade but it is important to be sure how your computer will interact with the exam software to prevent later problems. (worth 1% of your grade). So please use the computer you will later use on Sunday to take exams.

Read: Sweet & Meiksins, Chapter 1

Assignment for Week 1: Interview at least one parent or grandparent about your family’s work history (preferably more). You do not need to write anything about the interview. It will form the basis of an online discussion next week.

Week 2: Work and Our Lives (Jan. 22-28)

- You and your family’s history of work
- Intergenerational economic mobility and immobility
- Intergenerational transmission of resources (types of economic and social capital)

Read:

Paul Krugman, Chapter 1, End This Depression Now. New York: WW Norton, 2012, and

The Pew Charitable Trust, “A Third of Americans Now Say They Are in the Lower Classes” and watch the accompanying short video on absolute vs. relative income mobility (link in the online course shell).

Gene Demby, “Young People Want Equality but Struggle to Discuss Bias,” National Public Radio, 5/15/14 (link in the online course shell).

Due week 2: Participate in Forum 1: You need to post at least twice by Thursday evening, and then another two times by Sunday evening. Both quantity and quality count so you may want to post beyond this minimum.
Week 3: Corporations & Work in the “New Economy” (Jan. 29-Feb. 4)

- Corporations – structure, power, and rights
- Old and new forms of work organization
- The rise of contingent work

Read: Sweet & Meiksins, Chapter 2, and Watch: Video excerpts from The Corporation on You-tube.

PBS video, “A Job at Fords” from the series, The Great Depression

Due in Week 3: Take part in the “negotiate the syllabus exercise” this week at your scheduled time. Instructions will be posted as an Announcement.

Week 4: Social Class in the U.S. (Feb. 5-11)

- Class and opportunity in the U.S.
- Class and social mobility
- Relationship between wealth and power
- Has class faded in American culture?

Read: NYTimes website on Social Class:
http://www.nytimes.com/pages/national/class/

Be sure to read on this site:
1. the Overview article, ‘Shadowy Lines That Still Divide’
2. Tamar Lewin “Up from the Holler” Click on Day 3
3. David Leonhardt “The College Dropout Boom” Click on Day 5
4. at least two other articles/blogs from the site.
5. Also read Bob Herbert’s op. ed. ‘Mobility Myth’ click under ‘Readers Opinions’
6. You should also be sure to do the interactive exercise on the NYTimes site using your family of social origin.

Watch:
Professor Francis Ryan, Rutgers Labor Studies & Employment Relations Dept. speak about the history of the ideal of social mobility in the U.S. and the reality today.

Kate Pickett, Big Think Interview, “Why Inequality is Bad for Your Health” http://bigthink.com/katepickett. The rest is optional viewing.

Due in week 4 – Nothing this week. However, you should start working on the assignment that is due on Thursday next week:

Assignment: Write a 500 word Op-Ed on social class and inequality. You can choose any one of the following three suggestions for a central theme (Op-Eds advocate an idea or a public policy).

(a) “Social class is real in the United States.” These Op-Eds are typically built around the personal experience of the author, their family, and/or people they know. See the New York Times website on social class for several examples.

(b) “Widening economic inequality is a big problem in the United States.” This type of Op-Ed needs to be built on facts (the Domhoff reading in week 5 has many) but must be written in a way that is readable, convincing, and often illustrated by either personal experience or that of others.

(c) “We should reduce economic inequality in the United States by passing the following law.” Here you would need to choose a public policy that would help reduce economic inequality and advocate convincingly for its effectiveness. Explain why it would reduce this current problem.

An Op-Ed is an opinion piece (named such because it is usually placed "opposite the editorials" in a publication) designed to offer an alternate position to what the media provides. Typically, an op-ed is written by an expert in a subject area or in industry. Generally, the goal of an op-ed is to educate the public on an issue. While an op-ed is largely an "opinion" piece, it must be based in fact and should be persuasive in style rather than a simple report. Take the time to edit, re-edit and then re-edit again. A clean, concise and compelling op-ed is your goal.

Week 5: Economic Inequality Today (Feb. 12-18)

- Class, race, and gender inequality
- Does the U.S. have a power pyramid?
- Health and other effects of income inequality

Read:

Sweet & Meiksins, Chapter 3, and Review:

A short take home final will be distributed April 30. It is due Friday. May 4 at 11:59pm.
Appendix. Labor-related museum exhibit visit and paper.

1. Visit one of the following locations listed below. Take a picture of yourself at the location or scanned program from the location to document you were physically there. You will upload this separately.

2. Write a five-page (double spaced) paper in which you describe your experience and the content of the museum exhibit. In your essay address some of the following questions:

   Why did you choose to visit that place?
   What did you learn from your visit?
   What did you like most about the museum?
   What did you like most about the exhibits? What would you have changed if you could?
   How is the location connected to the course/ or a specific part of the course?
   How did your knowledge and background of labor studies change the lens in which you viewed the exhibits?
   What readings from this course were helpful for viewing and understanding the exhibits?
   Would you recommend visiting to other students in the class? Why or why not?

Please feel free to comment on other aspects of the visit that may not be addressed in the above questions.

Locations to visit (choose any one):

1. The Tenement Museum in NYC. Go to http://www.tenement.org/ for information. There are a variety of tours and you may need to sign up in advance.

2. The American Labor Museum at the Botto House in Patterson, NJ. Go to http://www.labormuseum.net/ for information. There are also good walking tours in Patterson.

4. Roebling Museum in Burlington County -- http://roeblingmuseum.org/ If you go to this one be sure to also investigate the big strikes that occurred in this company town.

5. Seabrook Museum -- in far South Jersey near Vineland -- http://www.seabrookeducation.org/. The history of Seabrook includes a united black/white Communist-influenced 1934 strike, battles with the Klan, the owner’s use of every group possible to keep down labor costs (Japanese internees, Estonian refugees, German POWs, etc.).

6. Philadelphia History Museum (formerly the Atwater-Kent) in downtown Philly -- http://www.philadelphiamounts.org/ -- A general history museum, but includes ethnic and worker-related exhibits. They have a lot of the material objects (most not displayed) from the late great Balch Ethnic Institute and some suggested walking tours of city neighborhoods. Visit a part of the museum related to labor studies.

7. Nearer to the Lehigh Valley Area, Pennsylvania, the Bethlehem Steel Stacks, in Pennsylvania, runs tours. If you do this one, also investigate the history of the union there. Go to http://www.historicbethlehem.org for information.
