

41st UALE Northeast Summer School for Women in Unions and Worker Organizations

July 30-Aug 3 2016
Labor Education Center, Rutgers, New Brunswick, New Jersey

WHAT IS THE SUMMER SCHOOL?

The 41st UALE Northeast Summer School for Women in Unions and Worker Organizations is a four-day residential program sponsored by the United Association for Labor Education. The school brings together rank-and-file members, staff, and officers of unions and workers' organizations to strengthen their knowledge and understanding of the U.S. labor movement. UALE advocates education as an essential tool to develop new activists and leaders who will grow and transform the labor movement.

THE PROGRAM:

All participants will choose from workshops designed to improve leadership skills and capacities. Multi-day workshops will be offered to allow for in-depth learning experiences and practical application. The courses are designed to promote: development of self and relationships; organizational leadership; how labor's values and issues intersect; member engagement, and an understanding of the economic and political forces shaping today's labor movement.

Summer school instructors are intergenerational pairs of union officers, staff, and labor educators from universities and unions. Throughout the week, experts on current labor issues share their knowledge and wisdom as guest speakers. Evening activities provide opportunities to network and have fun!
