Conference at Rutgers: Nurses Gathering

Stronger Unions * Best Practices * Safer Workplaces

WHAT

Join Jobs With Justice, the Rutgers University School of Management and Labor Relations, and a coalition of labor and community organizations to share workplace best practices with nurses from across the United States. The two-day conference will highlight important topics such as Building Stronger Unions, Healthcare Industry Consolidation, Community Campaigns and Coalition Building, Health and Safety, and more. Through workshops, panels, and guest speakers, this conference will allow nurses to collaborate, share, and better navigate the ever-changing world of health care labor relations.

This activity has been planned and implemented by Rutgers School of nursing, Rutgers Biomedical and Health Sciences and Rutgers School of Management and Labor Relations. Rutgers Biomedical and Health Sciences is accredited by the American Nurses Credentialing Center (ANCC), the Accreditation Council for Pharmacy Education (ACPE), and the Accreditation Council for Continuing Medical Education (ACCME), to provide continuing education for the healthcare team.
